

Three In Contest For North Gwill. Reeve, Deputy Acclaimed

Battling at the North Gwillimbury township polls on Monday for the 1953 reeveship will be the 1952 reeve, John Lewis Doyle, the 1952 deputy-reeve, Roy Pollock and Harold Glover. Charles Richardson, a 1952 councillor was acclaimed at the nomination meeting qualifying for the position as deputy-reeve, Roy Pollock decided to try for a move up to the reeveship.

All candidates nominated for council positions have qualified according to the clerk and returning officer, Erwin Winch. In the list of council candidates are Arlene Mae Link, Cecil Prosser, William Arthur King, who was once reeve, James Clark, Clark Martin and Frank Willoughby.

"The finest township in the Dominion of Canada," was the description Mrs. Mary Munro gave the township on Lake Simcoe's east shore. Mrs. Munro, a seconder for one of the nominations, said that was her belief "despite unfavorable publicity by the radio and press."

A four day court of revision session on the 1952 assessments had just been wound up. During the sessions there had been many stormy protests made by appellants.

Of the 163 appeals, there were 24 lowered and one raised. The total assessment will be $14,040 lower than last year, the greatest reduction being made on the subdivision owned by Don Christian at Eastbourne, a reduction of $4,558.28.

The Don Christian property is adjacent to that of Mrs. Dorothy Matthews who claimed last week that racial discrimination was the cause of her assessment being raised. Mrs. Matthews' assessment was also lowered. Largest business assessment was $4,500, on the Tides hotel, owned by Thomas Brown. His appeal was based on the fact that he operated his business only four months of the year, at the most, and his assessment was on the basis that he operated 12 months of the year.

At the conclusion of the court of revision sessions, Mrs. Arlene

DISTRICT COUNCIL OF HOME SCHOOL MEET AT AURORA

York-Simcoe Home and School council will hold a general meeting in the Aurora public school, Wells St., on Thursday, Dec. 4, 8.15 p.m. Home and School members from associations within this area, the northern section of York County, are invited to attend and bring their friends.

Theme of the meeting will be children's reading. There will be a speaker, book display, radio skit and several selections by the Aurora school choir under the direction of Hilary Harris, director of music, Aurora schools.

Charles McGuire, editor of "Canadian Teacher" an authority on the subject, will discuss children's reading. This will be followed by a radio skit directed by Mrs. R. M. Sherk, vice-president of the federation. Mrs. Sherk will be assisted by Rev. E. E. Kent and Walter Sanders. The book display will feature books for pre-school and school age children.

Nurses Learn Care Needed In Atom War

Miss Verna Smythe, the nursing supervisor of York County Health Unit, opened the fifth of the series of lectures on "Nursing in A-B-C Warfare", being held in Newmarket for district nurses, by answering a question as to whether any stock-piling of essentials is being done.

She informed the nurses that stock of material which will be necessary in case of atomic attack is being gathered in Toronto as a top priority project, also that the larger hospitals are keeping well above their usual quotas in supply of dressings, antibiotics and other essentials.

The course points the equipment requirements on a 1,000 casualty basis, estimated as: 4,000 shell dressings; 4,000 bandages, 4 inch by 6 yards (cotton); 700 splints of 5"x3"x2"; 300 of morphine syringes (1 grain).

The nurses took great interest in the medical care and nursing techniques of treatment as explained by Miss Nora Yeo, Toronto. One of the principal requirements as explained, was the large quantity of whole blood that would be needed for patients suffering from radiation sickness.

One patient alone will require 500 cc's every five days for a couple of weeks or more. This is more than one donation at a blood donors' clinic, as each donation is 380 cc's.

The film witnessed by the nurses was of the two-day "fire-raids" on London, Eng., in December, 1940. It showed the tremendous amount of fire equipment which would be needed to control such an extensive fire.

Dr. R. M. King addressed them on biological and chemical warfare. Biological warfare, he said, would be used of germs to interfere with mobilization of forces by infection of utility centres. Chemical warfare is the use of poisonous gases. Of these, there are blister gases, choking gases and nerve gases.

Nerve gases are the more serious and are as much feared as an atomic bomb. They were first discovered by the Allies in Germany at the end of World War II; the German scientists responsible for the discovery of these gases are inside the Russian sector.

Santa Claus Parade Meeting Tonight

A meeting of merchants and other interested citizens will be held tonight to discuss a Santa Claus parade in Newmarket. All interested in the meeting are urged to attend the meeting at the agricultural board rooms tonight at 7.30 p.m.

Spits, Fergus Tonight

Newmarket Spitfires will have a chance to even up their Big 8 Group play at two wins and two losses when they tackle Fergus Steel Workers at the local ice rinks tonight. The Spits' record now stands at one win and two losses.

The Steel Workers haven't been settling the world on fire and are presently sweeping out the league basement. Their lowly rating is all a mistake, Fergus officials hint; they're due to bust out in a scoring rash. Spitfires better watch out. Friday night the Spits take to the road to Oakville for a test with the Klippers. Klippers, it will be recalled, spoiled the Spits' home opener.

Coach Morrison, manager Father T. J. McCabe and Spits' voters would like nothing better than to return the compliment.

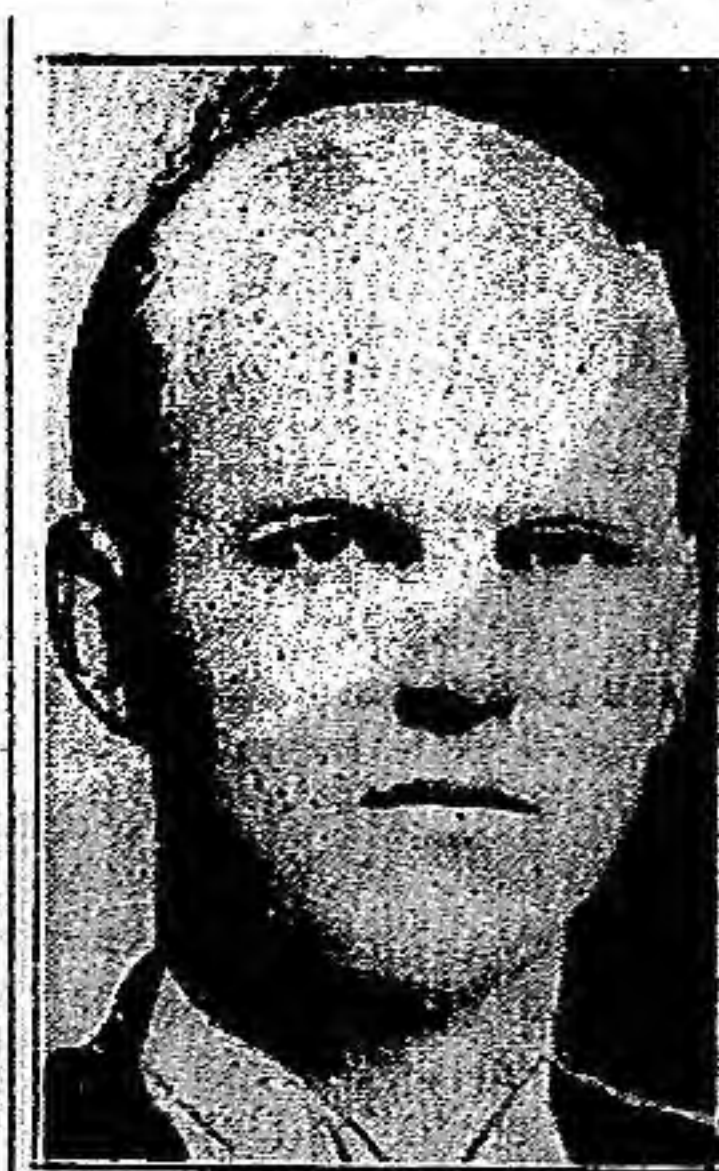

District Milk Producers Elect Officers At Stroud

The Toronto Milk Producers' association meeting for district seven, held at Stroud Nov. 11, saw the largest attendance for a long time, according to reports. Fraser Sutherland, Stroud, was elected president.

Ernie Grossland, Newmarket, was elected vice-president; M. L. Newroth, Sharon, sec-treas; James Hope, Newmarket, district representative on the Toronto board.

The 125 shippers from a district comprising both York and Simcoe counties, heard Everett Biggs, dairy commissioner for Ontario review the dairy situation in the province and they saw movies about the milk foundation.

James Hope and W. H. Wilmoth, secretary manager of the association, both gave reports on the year's work. Among resolutions was one approving of the annual meeting to be held in Toronto on December 18 and another supporting the principle of a milk marketing agency.

Mayor Joseph Vale

Mrs. V. R. MacNaughton

Two candidates for the office of mayor of Newmarket in next Monday's elections are the present mayor, Joseph Vale, and the challenger, Mrs. V. R. MacNaughton. Each has given an election platform which will be found on other pages of the Era and Express.

DAVIS DR. WILL BE THROUGH STREET, STOP MAIN TRAFFIC

The traffic signs at the intersection of Davis Dr. and Main St. at the north end of Newmarket are to be changed. Members of council approved of putting stop signs on Main St. for both north and south bound traffic. Davis Dr. will be a through street. The signs will be put up when approval is granted by the department of highways.

Mayor Vale said he was not sure about the plan to make Davis Dr. a through street. He said that traffic would be too fast. Councillor VanZant, chairman of the police committee, said that the recommendation had come from the police chief and that it was the best arrangement which could be found for the present to prevent accidents.

Lorne Paynter said that stop lights were needed and that he would again try to have the county erect lights at the corner.

COADJUTOR BISHOP FOR DIOCESE OF TORONTO ELECTED

Rev. J. T. Rhodes, rector of St. Paul's Anglican church, Newmarket, accompanied by the local lay delegates, Arthur Evans and James Crossland, attended a meeting of the Toronto Diocese at St. James' parish hall on Tuesday, Nov. 25. The purpose of the meeting was for the election of the Coadjutor Bishop for the Diocese of Toronto.

Canon F. H. Wilkinson, M.M., M.A., D.D., rector of St. Paul's church, Bloor St., Toronto, was elected on the fourth ballot. The choice was made unanimous on the motion of Dean Riley. The Coadjutor Bishop automatically becomes the Bishop in the event of the latter's death or retirement.

The Right Reverend A. R. Beverley, M.A., D.D., the Lord Bishop of Toronto, would be succeeded in that office by Canon Wilkinson, bishop-elect.

The Toronto Diocese is numerically the largest in Canada. Tuesday's meeting was attended by the clergy and lay delegates from the diocese. There were over 600 present.

2,000-YEAR DREAM REALIZED

The establishment of the State of Israel is the miracle of our times. That is the opinion of Rabbi Solomon F. Kleinman of Temple Beth El, Niagara Falls, N.Y., a young Jew who served in the Air Force during the last war. Rabbi Kleinman spoke at Pickering College chapel service Sunday night.

"A 2,000 year-old dream came true when the State of Israel was established," he said. "If you were asked what the miracle of our times is, you might say splitting the atom, but I would say the establishment of Israel," said Rabbi Kleinman.

"With the destruction of the temple by the Romans in the year 70, it looked like the dream of the Jews was doomed. The next few thousand years is something we all ought to be mindful of the trials and tribulations which beset the Jew, which made him become the wandering Jew of the East, North Africa and Europe.

"As soon as he became accustomed with the ways of countries he was no longer wanted and he packed up and left. The year Columbus discovered America

SHRINE INDUCTION

Nearly 90 Masons from various parts of Ontario, including Thomas J. M. Birrell, F. T. Courtney and J. S. Law, Newmarket, were inducted into the Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine at the fall ceremonial and initiation of Rameses Temple held at the Royal York hotel, Toronto.

The unique ceremony, in which Shrine bands, chanters and patrols in colorful costumes participated, was attended by hundreds of Shriners from all parts of Ontario.

Six Candidates For Three Positions On Public School Board

Six candidates will be on the ballot for Newmarket public school board trusteeships. They are Horace Jaques, J. L. R. Bell, Arthur C. Lloyd, James Galbraith, Allan Perks and Sam Doggett. Three are to be elected.

Members standing for re-election are Bell, Galbraith and Perks. Speaking on the platform at nomination meeting Friday were Galbraith, Lloyd, Jaques and Doggett.

Horace Jaques said that as a father of two children, he has the interest in school board matters and in the children of the town.

"The board has been a target for criticism," he said. "It has heard criticism from me as well. I believe that one should offer his services as well as his criticism."

The important school board considerations were to properly educate the children, have satisfactory teachers, satisfied teachers and proper schools, he said. "I see a very important job to do on the board and I think there is an important contribution to be made."

Arthur C. Lloyd who lives in the north end school section, north of Davis Dr., is a V.L.A. employee. He said that the people in the new union school section north of Newmarket are happy about the union. "The mill rate has been reduced one and a half for school purposes," he said.

State Of Israel Miracle Of Our Times

At the passover service, the same phrase was repeated in his prayers, "Next year in Jerusalem" and he still had his heart in what he was saying.

"This hope nurtured the Jew, the hope that someday he would be a free man in a free country where he could worship in freedom,"

Rabbi Kleinman told about how the events shaped up in the last few generations to create the State of Israel, how a German Jew, Theodore Hertz, spent eight years of his life writing and working at the end of the last century, for a Jewish state and the Balfour declaration in 1917 how Britain paved the way with which eventually persuaded the rest of the world to co-operate for a free Israel.

"The Zionist movement does not hope to see all the Jews of the world settled in the State of Israel," he said. There are 11 to 12 million Jews in the world but there is room for only three to four million in Israel. "The purpose of Zionism is to deepen and strengthen the ties to the land of our citizenship, to strengthen the Jew that someday he would

INJURED IN CRASH AT OAK RIDGES

Donald Cummings, Newmarket, was seriously injured in an accident at Oak Ridges last Friday night when a north-bound car swerved in front of him, causing a head-on collision.

Fog and rain made driving conditions bad. Both cars were travelling slowly at the time. Mr. Cummings was travelling south when the car carrying two women from the United States swerved in front of him. The passenger in the American car was injured. Mr. Cummings was taken to hospital in Toronto. It was first feared that his skull was fractured but x-ray revealed no fractures. He is still in hospital.

ST. ANDREW'S BAZAAR

The St. Andrews church W.A. will hold a bazaar at the church tomorrow afternoon from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. Of special interest will be the handcraft leather work of John Lewis, Newmarket. Heather has been flown from Scotland for the tables at the St. Andrews bazaar. Other attractive items on sale will be

Mrs. Violet Robinson MacNaughton, a councillor and Mayor Joseph Vale are the contestants for the office of mayor of Newmarket, to be decided in next Monday's voting. The only two nominated for the office last Friday night, Mrs. MacNaughton qualified during the meeting, the mayor the next day.

Reeve Arthur D. Evans was re-elected by acclamation Friday night, along with Deputy-Reeve Herb Gladman.

All members of council were elected by acclamation. They are Charles VanZant, Lorne Paynter, Edward Wrightman, Joseph Dales, Robert McGuire and Frank Bowser. Those nominated who did not qualify for election were Charles E. Boyd and Rudy Renzius, 1952 councillors. Mrs. MacNaughton and Charles Rye.

At a council meeting Monday night Rudy Renzius resigned as member of the present council to receive an appointment as member of the hydro commission in place of William Young. Mr. Young resigned recently to take on the job of hydro superintendent. His two year term would not have been up until the end of 1953. Fred Thompson was elected by acclamation as a member of the hydro commission for another two year term.

Mayor Vale told the group of 125 citizens at the nomination meeting that there would be two or three important matters confronting council next year, the Main St. project, the building of the county home on Eagle St. and the possibility of construction of a sewage disposal plant.

He gave much of the credit for the county's decision to build a new home for the aged in Newmarket to Reeve Arthur Evans and Deputy-Reeve Herb Gladman. The sewage disposal plant, he said, would be a tremendous undertaking and would have a great effect on the tax rate.

Not every section in town will receive the same benefit from the disposal plant, he said.

"It is a question as to how much of the proportion those districts should pay," said the mayor. "Steps will be taken by council to see if financial aid can be given by the provincial and Dominion governments."

"The ratepayers will not be able to see all the benefits but the town cannot carry on too much longer without a disposal plant."

Mr. Galbraith, appointed earlier in the year in place of Herbert Atkins who had to give up board work, said that he did not realize the important work of the board until his appointment.

"There are two efficient lady members on the board and men who give their time efficiently. We have all co-operated and the members get along well," he said. He paid tribute to the board's efficient secretary, Bruce Hunter.

Sam Doggett, a minister, said his nomination was a "bolt from the blue". He said youth was needed on council and school boards.

"I am a preacher. I don't know whether you want such men on your board or not," he said. He added that Newmarket needed a ratepayers' association. "Then you could pick your right men and elect them," he said.

ART CLASSES

Art classes for youngsters, which are being organized by Mrs. Keith Davis, Newmarket, will include children from the ages of 10 to 16. Mrs. Davis points out that there are provisions in town for adults interested in art but up to now, nothing has been done for young people. Those interested are asked to phone 788-J, Newmarket.

Observer Describes 'Color' Of Aurora's Nominations

By Caroline Iton

"Colorful" was the word selected by Dr. Crawford Rose to describe the Aurora council for 1952. The same word was appropriate for the nomination meeting on Thursday, Nov. 20.

There aren't many nomination meetings frequented by ghosts but Aurora had one. Or, were there two? The swan song of a local politician was performed and before the curtain was lowered, the presentation approximated a music hall production.

But, returning to our color analysis, Thursday was one more rainy, grey day. The crowd was slow in gathering and garbed in water-repellent clothing carried the monotonous of mist and rain into the building.

There was keen interest in civic matters; the town clerk, George Wilkinson, was kept busy entering the names of the nominees on the blackboard. No less than 33 names were brought forward that night.

The mayor approached the rostrum. In an efficient and pleasant manner, Dr. Rose reported on council, 1952. The greys faded. They were replaced with warm, sunny colors; there was a feeling of good fellowship and achievement. Each member of the retiring council reported on his stewardship for the past year.

True Blue For Loyalty
True blue was the predominant color. Loyalty was the theme as each councillor proceeded to report briefly on his committee activities. There was

One citizen in Newmarket who is interested in old landmarks is not happy about a suggestion made at a town council meeting recently, to remove the old tower from the town hall building.

"Couldn't they reconsider and try to preserve one of the few remaining landmarks of Newmarket?" asked a reader this week. This particular citizen has visited the state of Pennsylvania and while there discovered two other buildings of the same vintage and the same architecture.

"Apparently these Pennsylvanians see the value of their landmarks. I saw two town halls of exactly the same architecture as our town hall. The buildings have been painted white and wonderfully preserved," said our reader who is of the opinion that the history of our town hall dates back almost to the middle of the past century.

In the opinion of the chairman of the property committee, Joseph Dales, the tower is unsafe and should be taken down. In a few weeks, work is to be started on repairs to the roof and it is assumed that the tower will be taken down at this time.

Our reader's remarks are worthy of consideration. The preservation of our old buildings is worth while, if at all practical. There is sufficient interest in the past shown by natives of Newmarket, ex-residents, tourists and amateur historians to preserve these reminders of the past and they will be valued far more in the future.

An old friend of the paper who is a friend of most anyone is a strong supporter of the Newmarket Citizens' Band. He came to this office and said he was looking for ten men who would support the band under a scheme of his own invention.

Our old friend is "well set," sufficiently so, that he is using his old age pension cheque to sponsor a couple of boys in the Junior Citizens' Band which had its first practice last night. Our friends having some instruments rebuilt in the city this week, an expensive undertaking, and is using his pension cheque to do it.

"I don't need this old age money," he said. "If I could just find ten other men who don't need theirs, we would have the finest Junior Citizens' Band in the province," and with that he was off down the street, two instruments under his arm, to catch the bus to the city.

Each of the young lads who are being sponsored, incidentally, would not otherwise have had any hope of buying a good brass horn such as they now will have.

Arrests of two York County policemen in connection with a Dominion store break-in and attempted robbery in the city was a shock to a number of civic officials and ourselves.

Although it may be considered "not nice" to mention this, we note that at least one of the policemen attended solemn ceremonies at both Aurora and Newmarket council meetings last week when the York county police association members presented framed, colored pictures of the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh.

The respect for policemen in our county and communities was commented upon by Mr. Hulse and Mayor Joseph Vale. The irony of the incident which followed our report of the ceremonies last week is in no way a reflection on policemen. It is a tragedy concerning individuals.

There is no simple way of analyzing the workings of the human mind. These men represented law and order, probably worked diligently in detecting and overcoming crime yet they themselves have become victims of their own actions, the causes of which may never be explained. It is a human tragedy.

Miss Evelyn Weddel of Sharon leaves for Chicago on Saturday, being one of the 18 girls from the province of Ontario who won in the recent judging contest. There are also 18 boys going in the same party at the expense of the Ontario government.

Rev. J. W. Borland, bursar of Knox College, was in charge of both services last Sunday in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Cripps has sold her house on Eagle St. to Mr. Moreby, King township.

Heave Lundy and Deputies McCauley and Lyons have been attending County Council all this week.

Mrs. W. L. Kidd's parents, who have been here on a visit since Thanksgiving, left for their home in "Tilsonburg" last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Kidd motored there as far as Hamilton.

Miss Evelyn Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis of the King George hotel, gave a "miscellaneous shower" on Saturday evening for Miss Doris Stallard, a bride-to-be. About a dozen and a half girl friends were present.

Miss Myrtle Peters and Mrs. C. H. Devey of Bedford Park, Toronto, gave a "kitchen shower" last Friday in honor of Miss Hilda Locke, a bride of this week. A number of girl friends were present.

According to the city papers Miss Eunice Lamb, granddaughter of Mrs. E. C. Jackson of Newmarket, has won another scholarship, the Robert Bruce, awarded on the basis of the results of the first year in the Faculty of Arts.

Miss Mazo de la Roche was the guest of honor of the London Women's Press Club last week. Miss May Clendennan poured tea and coffee and was assisted by Mrs. Gordon Hutchinson and Mrs. Charles Thomas. Margaret Clarke Russell read a clever poem about "Jalan" for the guest of honor.

NOVEMBER 28, 1902

Lt. Col. Lloyd was fortunate in securing two deer and returned home last Friday. Thanks to his generosity, the editor of the "Era" was included among the list of friends that were permitted to enjoy a roast of venison.

The pastors of four different churches in Newmarket have agreed to close their services earlier than usual next Sunday evening to permit a grand rally in the Christian church at 8 o'clock, to be addressed by Mr. Weeks of Toronto.

Mr. W. H. Eves got back from Arizona and California on Tuesday morning, having enjoyed the trip very much. There were 23 in the party and they rode all the way from Toronto to California and return in a private car fitted up with all the comforts of home.

About one dozen prize winners at the late fall fair of the North York Agricultural Society have not yet drawn their premiums. The treasurer would be glad to have all undrawn prizes paid so that the books for the year could be balanced.

Mrs. Chas. Rhinehart and little May have both been on the sick list for the past six weeks, but are now improving. Half the time they were confined to bed.

Miss Armitage took advantage of the Berlin excursion to visit relatives in Waterloo, Mrs. Jas. Sutherland at Galt, and Mrs. L. G. Jackson at Guelph.

Miss Grace Kirkpatrick is over from Michigan visiting friends in town this week.

Messrs E. Miller and E. Doyle spent Sunday in Markham, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tefft.

Miss Charlotte Dickson is spending a month or two with her brother, Mr. J. E. Dickson, Orillia.

Miss Mable Coombs and her sister, Edith, Bracebridge, spent over Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. Charles Kirby.

THURSDAY, THE TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-TWO

NOMINATION RESULTS

There were no great issues which came to light at nomination meeting last Friday night. The acclamations given to all the councillors indicate that electors themselves either consider that there are no issues or they are not interested. Acclamations could, in some cases indicate that the electors are in no way worried about the administration they are going to get from the 1953 council. Acclamations could be taken as an indication of confidence by the electors. But we doubt it. We would interpret the acclamations as a sign of apathy.

There were only three councillors acclaimed who are serving on the 1952 council. The others did not give any outward indication that they had given much thought to standing as candidates. In most cases, they accepted their nominations with an off-hand, indefinite attitude about standing for election. As it happened, there were just enough candidates to qualify to form a council.

There is no way in which one could believe that there was a definite expression from the people through the nomination proceedings. One cannot believe that the electors took pains to signify their wishes for any particular kind of administration next year, other than the nomination of two candidates for the mayor's office.

As predicted last week, there will be an election for a Newmarket mayor this year, the first contest by candidates for the mayoralty since 1947. Newmarket can look forward to an interesting race next Monday. It is expected that it will be a close contest.

Both candidates have indicated they have much to offer. The present mayor, Joseph Vale refers to his fine record of service to the town of Newmarket. The challenger, Mrs. V. R. MacNaughton, offers a change and a different outlook towards Newmarket's affairs.

There was a considerable amount of confusion about who was going to run for mayor during the last moments of the nomination meeting. Not until late Saturday was Newmarket sure whether there would be an election for mayor or not.

One thing can be said at this stage, that the forthcoming election for the mayor's office has stirred up more interest for election day. All in all it is a healthier sign for Newmarket's state of municipal affairs.

"SUPPOSEDLY DEMOCRATIC"

A quotation from the Polish publication, "Glos Szczeciński" is worth considering around election time. The article is based on a report of a returning emigrant, Mr. Dabrowski and was given as part of his reason for returning to Poland from Canada.

"I would like to tell you about the allegedly democratic elections and methods of ruling the country," says Mr. Dabrowski. "In the elections to municipal councils, only those can vote who have their 'office', that is enterprise or landed estates. Because factory workers and farm hands have no enterprises, they have no right to vote and they cannot be members of municipal councils and decide communal matters.

"There are also elections to parliament but since, as a rule, those who manage the municipal councils are only candidates, it is obvious how bourgeois the parliament is. The premier appoints the senators and nobody has the right to recall a senator, though he may be the greatest oppressor of the nation. You must wait till he dies. The whole parliament and senate is ruled by the British governor and he in turn by the multi-millionaires in New York. This shows what supposedly democratic government is like. Briefly speaking, it is the rule of the dollar."

We all know that Mr. Dabrowski's article does not present the truth. Nearly everyone in Newmarket may vote in municipal, provincial and federal elections. But if Mr. Dabrowski looked at the figures to see how many people do vote in municipal elections, it is easily understood how he was led to believe that we have not a democratic system.

The fact is that a small percentage of the voters elect our representatives. How concerned are we in our own country about finding out the facts, the basis of municipal government? How important are our civil rights to us, as individuals?

At the nomination meeting last Friday night, there were less than 200 people attending. We can venture the guess that there will be many more than 200 who will criticize and find fault with the council and the school board. Have these people and the ones who do not vote, the right to criticize? Can democracy, which must be practiced on the local level, be kept alive and free from corruption in this state of apathy?

Apathy is shown by the small attendance at nomination meetings. Apathy is seen in the reluctance of capable men to qualify for council positions, in the small number of civic-minded persons who offer themselves as candidates. Apathy is noticeable in the tone and feeling of the nomination meetings. The retiring council was not questioned on any matters; few reports were made on committee activities and no questions were asked about 1952 municipal business.

It is too late to alter these facts this year. It is hoped that next year will be better. The 1953 council was elected by acclamation. But there is to be a decision about the mayoralty next Monday and school board trustees are to be seated. The people of Newmarket can still give critics like Mr. Dabrowski something to think about by getting out to the polls and marking their ballots, every one who possibly can.

POWER OF WOMEN'S VOTE

It is entirely possible that in the last presidential election the women's vote was the deciding factor. There are many facts supporting this opinion. First, there were more women eligible to vote than there were men. Secondly, the issue of corruption in the government caused more indignation among women than among men. Finally, the mothers and wives gave an indication of their protest against the war in Korea.

There is at least one more point worth mentioning in connection with the vote in the United States, that women are spending more time at home. They were exposed much more to electioneering by radio and television than were men. The result was that in some parts of the United States there was a stronger organization than in others. Women set up their own election machines, drove other women to the polls and provided baby sitting services for each other.

We ought to face the fact that if the issues are serious enough and the electioneering is intensive enough, even in our country an election could be decided by a determined feminine vote. While the questions which brought out the women's vote in the States do not apply to Canada, political issues here are just as open to the modern means of propaganda as they are across the border. This might well apply to local municipal elections as well as to provincial and national contests.

It all goes to prove the truth in the old saying about not underestimating the power of the women.

WHAT IS A "CANADIAN"

Racially we are, and becoming more so, a rather mixed people. There is no pure Canadian, racially. And in spite of the tremendous pressures to confirm, pressures of mass media of various kinds to standardize our habits of eating, dress, sleeping, recreation and thinking — we are still considerably unlike, says the Swift Current, Sask., Sun. And the degree to which we maintain this "un-likeness" of habit, especially of thought although other habits affect thought, will determine to no small extent the vigor and health of that somewhat nebulous spirit and body of ideas we sum up in the word "democracy."

When we want the newcomers to become Canadians, do we not mean that we would like them to soon understand and find a place in the fairly wide range of concepts, habits, methods and relationships which we include in our understanding of democracy; that they will learn the language we speak so that we can communicate with them; that they become acclimatized to our social, recreational and cultural pursuits so that we can be "at home" with them and they with us; that in fact they become so much at home and a part of our communities and our nation that their first allegiance, when a crisis calls, will be with us.

A "Canadian," then, is a person who feels "at home" with Canada and his fellow Canadians.

FUTURE OF AGRICULTURE

In recent years, and particularly since the beginning of the last war, there have been significant changes in Canadian Agriculture, points out 'The Financial Post'. The number of farmers and farm labor force have decreased sharply, yet production has continued to increase. Mechanization largely explains that. With still more mechanization, especially in the more complex and specialized branches of agriculture, and with the aid of science in giving us better crops, better fertilizers and better control of pests and diseases, we can expect production to keep on increasing.

One limit we seem to be reaching, however, is the amount of available land that can be used for cultivated crops. Without some drastic change in climate we cannot expect any great expansion in our present economic acreage. That caution applies to the United States and much of the rest of the world, as well.

Office Cat Reports Catnips By Ginger

Your favorite correspondent and Slim Bliggins were relaxing in the blue room at Slim's piano box mansion Wednesday night, under the influence of television.

Slim's shack had been in a bad state of repair recently, the supporting beams having rotted and it was listing dangerously. Slim being his usual ingenious self, purchased a T. V. set and the mass of girders and wires that go with it for antena.

"I figured it 'ud be as cheap to buy the stuff as to have a construction man fix up me place here," said Slim. Now the T.V. girders and wires, straddling the piano box mansion, give it the required support.

Dozing in front of T.V. is like dozing before an open fireplace. If Slim and I are not in a dozing mood, we carry on some of our sparkling conversation. It is a challenge to Slim and I, this television. It competes against our snappy witticisms, our silver tongued eloquence.

Now and then we find ourselves shouting and arguing against the background of a give-away show. Unlike other people, we pay no attention to the program. We do not sit wrapped in attention, afraid to start up a conversation. T.V. to us is nothing. It is just a convenience to support Slim's house and give a sufficient glow so one can see one's way around the packing cases in the blue room.

It was on a rainy night, this Wednesday night, when Slim said, "Guess I'll turn on the television, get a little cheery warmth and light into this here place."

We were dozing through a program on the Royal Winter Fair on this evening as the rain pattered on the roof. I was conscious of some cattle walking past; I heard a few moos and possibly a few oinks. There were horses, I think, and a man making comments on the passing moos.

It was during an amble-past by a number of Jersey cows that I stretched, yawned and opened my eyes slightly. What? Had I seen right? I sat up with a jolt. It seemed that I had seen a familiar face on that screen but immediately blamed it on a false image.

Then it appeared again. Yes, it was. It was Dairy Farmer! It was our own Dairy Farmer! who parades up and down the columns below us. I still couldn't believe my eyes. The association of Jerseys and Dairy Farmer just didn't add up. Our Dairy Farmer is a Guernsey man and nothing else.

On waking up Slim, I peered with interest into that T.V. screen. There was our Dairy Farmer. We saw Dairy Farmer being pictured peering into another television down in the stalls near the cattle ring. Then later, he began talking right at us. We were astounded. It was just like watching Santa Claus.

We forget now what old Dairy Farmer said because we were so interested in just looking at him. He was talking something about the Jerseys which were ambling by.

Dairy Farmer was in the office today, and according to him, television is the coming thing in the dairy business. Only the other day I read that cows which watch T.V. give more milk.

It turned out old Dairy Farmer was helping Norm Garrioch with his T.V. cows down at the fair. According to all reports, they are acting well. We are real proud of our Dairy Farmer. We only hope he doesn't forsake his Guernseys for these T.V. Jerseys.

The Top Six Inches by "Dairy Farmer"

The man who sat across from us at the table has been connected with the dairy business all his life. He brought up a large family and he is recognized as a nationally known leader in his breed.

We discussed cows and shows and meetings and finally we came to discuss milk. He told us that he was worried. He feels that substitutes are making slow and steady inroads into the market, hitherto reserved to dairy products. He thought that sometime in the future, not in his lifetime though, the dairy cow will have to take the back seat.

He came from that great country south of the border and he thought that the Midwest is probably as hard hit as any part of the country. The eastern states, with their high population, can still pay for milk and in the west and the southwest, conditions of production are so favorable that dairying is profitable.

His solution was, of course, the same as we have come to recognize these last few years, stiff resistance to substitutions and more economical production of milk.

We have to breed a large cow which will convert roughage into milk efficiently and then make our land grow a lot of roughages which can be handled with mechanized farming. Our pastures under our climate will have to be irrigated to do this and our season will have to be stretched out by drainage and growing of suitable pastures and by breeding cattle which can take those few cold weeks in the fall and not go to pieces.

This is a pretty large order, and it will take a generation of dairymen to do it.

These remarks coming from a man whom we respect a great deal, came just a few days after our annual meeting for the milk producers in this district. What made this meeting so outstanding in our mind is the report we heard on the work of the milk foundation.

We saw a film prepared for school use and saw some posters used by the foundation and listened to a talk by one of their men. The fact that connects these two occurrences, a talk on the future of the industry and the work of the foundation is, of course, easy to see. We will have to have time and money to effect the changes necessary to survive.

The work of the milk foundation, by assuring that the younger generation knows something of milk and is brought up to appreciate milk as a food and the men who produce it, will give us the chance to make the necessary changes in our methods of production.

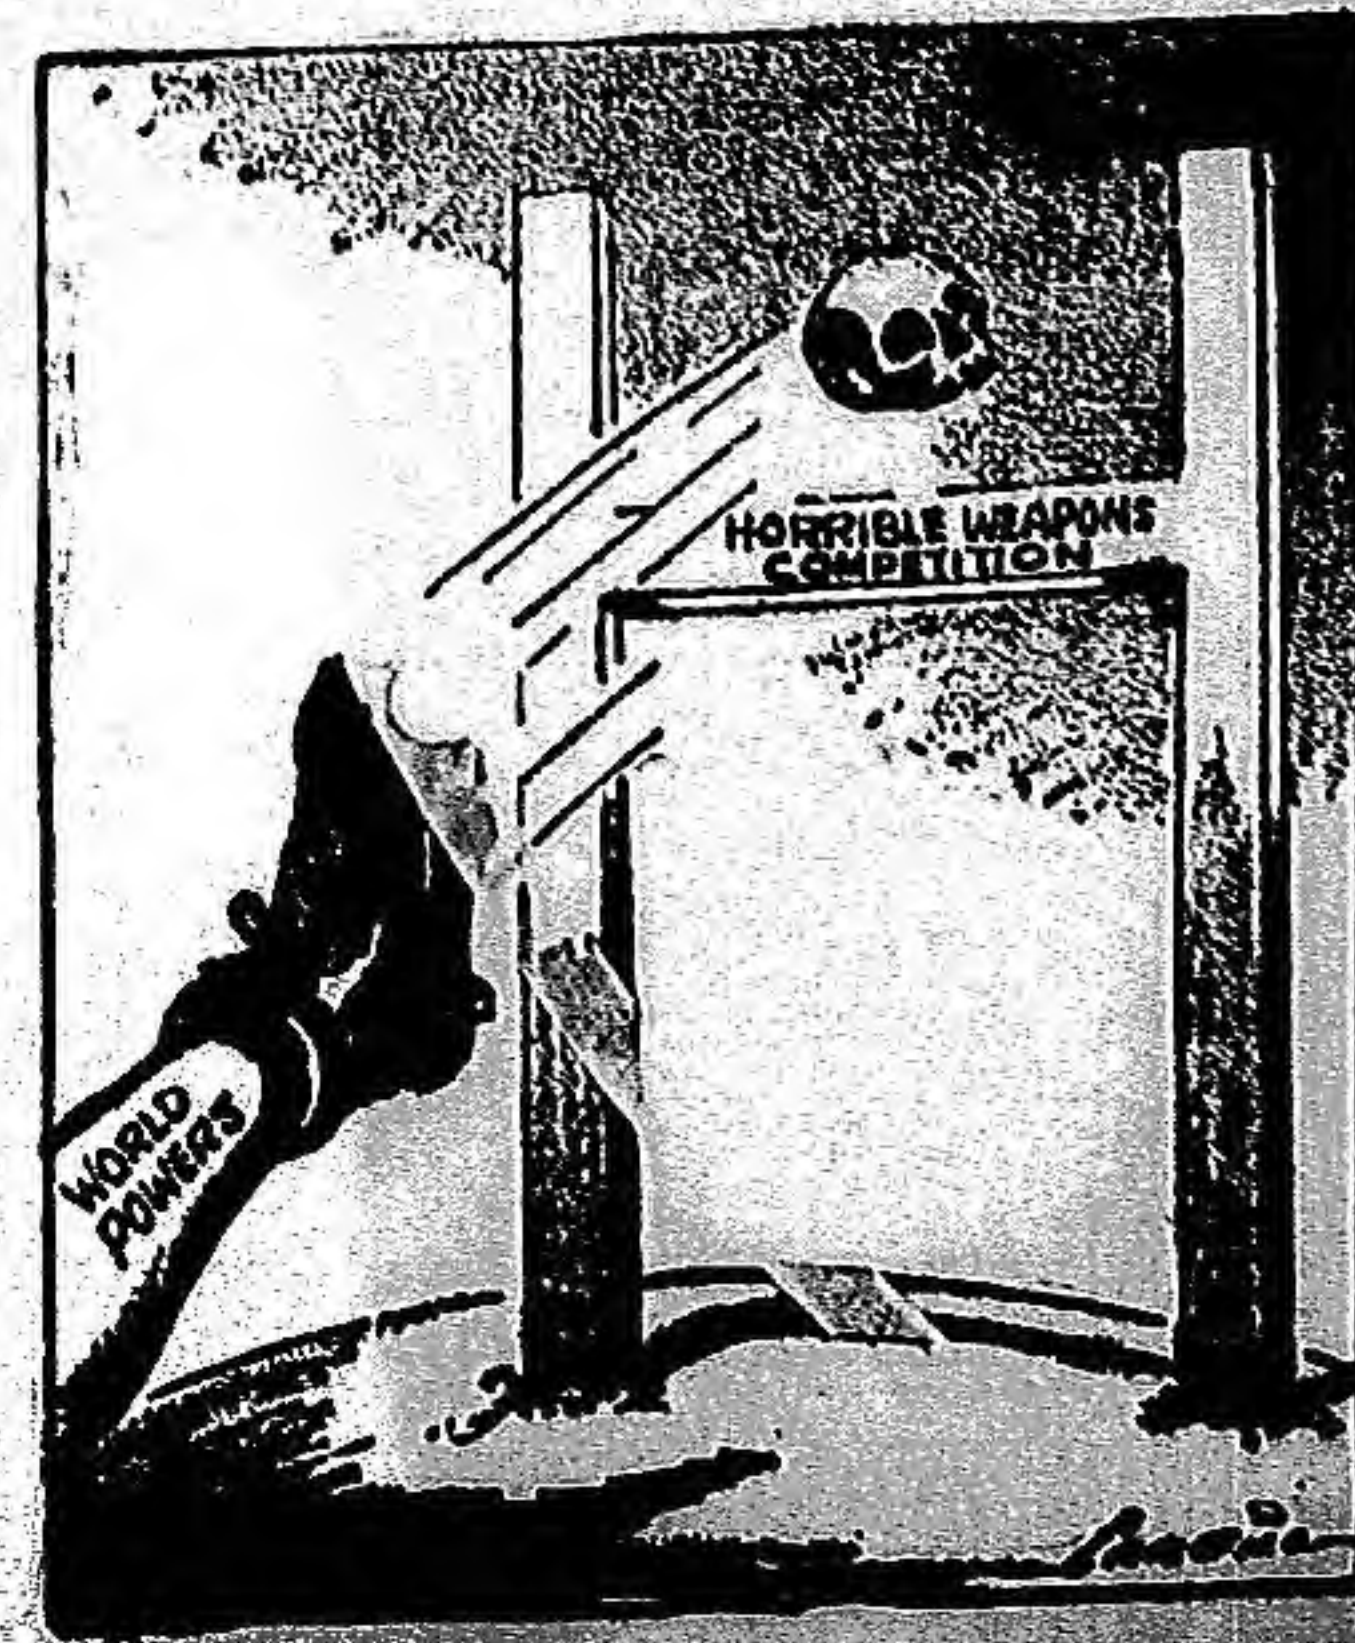

We do not have too much time. We are living in an age of substitutes and synthetics; we make something from something else and then make it look like what it isn't.

There is an excuse and a justification for this in countries where there is not enough of the real thing or where centuries of development have to be accomplished in a short span, where there is not enough food or enough money to invest to produce enough food.

It could even be argued that there may be a shortage of food on this continent without some substitutes. There was such a case during the war.

But we are rich and we are spoiled and we want quality. We drive the best cars and have the best houses and wear the best clothes. And the dairy cow is the only one that can give us the quality in this type of food that we want. By education, advertising and more up-to-date and intelligent merchandising and selling, this business of quality will be our salvation.

Many years ago in a little Italian village there lived a very great artist who worked out his intricate designs in glass. One day a helper in the studio came to his master and said, "Please, master, may I have for my own self the bits of glass that you throw on the floor?"

"Why yes, boy," said the artist. "The bits are good for nothing. Do as you please with them."

Day after day went by and the boy worked patiently and quietly at his little bits of glass. Years hurried by and still he patiently worked in his spare moments.

One day the artists was looking through his store room and he came upon a form holding thousands of bits of glass woven into an exquisitely beautiful picture. As the boy came to the door and saw his master holding his work of art he flushed and began to make apologies.

"What is this?" the artist cried. "What great artist has been in my studio working on this masterpiece?"

"Oh master," the boy faltered,
"it is only my poor work. You said I might use the discarded bits of glass that you throw away."

Do you get the message?
Come, gather up the bits of time and opportunity lying all about.
Patiently work out your life mosaic; it may be a masterpiece by the Grace of God. Few of us can be great in the way of the world but who can dare say that the weakest of us may not weave something of eternal value and beauty in our own humble way and limited resources?

The Editor: Your editorial
"Farm Prices and Costs" includes the following spine-chilling reminder: "... if the present slump in prices for farm products continues, with no relief from decreasing costs for goods and services, the farmer again will return to his buying habits of the late 1930's. Those who provide the goods and services in question and the retailers who supply them, might be reminded to bear in mind the old story about not killing the goose that laid the golden egg."

The above is culled from your Oct. 9 issue. I get the distinct impression from my general reading that the trend has not altered in the intervening six weeks. All this unsophisticated reader feels like saying from my groundline view is that it had better, and soon, for there ain't a deal of sense in pulling down the ridgepole. That way lies trouble and depression, with that thin lad, unemployment, once again "standing on the corner of the street".

It seems to me that the smart people in the secondary and manufacturing and defense industries should, in the vernacular,
"pull up their socks" and snap out of their stupid apathy toward the destruction of the buying-power of their greatest and

Despite all the turmoil and the criticisms beamed at rural primary producers, the experts know that upsurging food prices are to be charged not to the primary producers but to off-the-farm influences and the deterioration in the 1952 dollar contrasted with its husky 1942 ancestor.

Moreover, it should be everlastingly pointed out to the nation's housewives that when they spend a dollar on the food needs of their families, they are sending 49 cents back to the farmer!
If they wish to 'check' on what happens to the other 51 cents,

Fair Play.

The Editor: Thursday night was nomination night in Aurora.
It rained hard but the Lions hall was filled with politically minded citizens. Thirty-three nominations were made before the chairman declared them closed.

Friday night was nomination night at Newmarket. It also rained hard that night but the hall wasn't half filled with capable, politically minded citizens. After a series of prompting by the town clerk, 21 nominations were made.

Today, I sit behind my desk worried because I, a youth of this town, too young to vote, too young to contribute to political matters, realize that citizens of this community, 3,417 of whom are free to vote, are not fulfilling their obligations as citizens.
I am willing to wager that 90 percent of those people who do nothing but criticize, complain and find fault in their mayor, council and school board have never, never attended a nomination meeting, let alone turned out to vote.

Why should I be worried?
Simply because the lack of interest in political affairs on the part of the people is going to reflect the same disinterest in their children with whom I am growing up.

Doubtlessly an inferiority complex falls into this sad picture. I have heard towns-people say that the merchants, the industrial leaders and the large property owners control the majority of local affairs. If this were the subtle situation, please note I say were, then it would be the duty of you, the small property owners, the small proprietors, or if you prefer, the lesser people, to cope with the situation as a body, not as individuals.

Changes haven't been and never will be made through complaining to your wife and neighbors, but they are made at nomination meetings and at elections. For your sake, the sake of the town, the sake of our public welfare and for my sake as a youth, please, Newmarket, wake up to the political situation of your community.

R. I. Saunders.

feeling toward countries which made it possible.

"Zionism is devoted to the reconstruction of a Jewish national home in Palestine," the Rabbi said.

A year after the proclamation was made in 1917 showing Brit-tain's willingness to start a state in Palestine, there were 55,000 Jews in Palestine. Before the second world war, there were 600,000. The population has almost doubled that since 1948.
Enough people to populate a town the size of Newmarket came into the country every day.

Said the Rabbi, "Today Palestine is the modern state which has transformed a desert into a garden. Cities have sprung up in places where there was nothing 35 years ago. The city of Tel Aviv was built on a sand dune, now is the most modern in the middle east. Israel has the largest university in the middle east."

"We all have witnessed this dream 2,000 years old, realized.
Whether he is a Jew or not anyone must feel fortunate to be living in these times to see this miracle take place," he said.

IN MEMORIAM

EDWARDS—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Arthur Edwards, Sharon, who passed away December 1, 1949. I watched you suffer day by day. It caused me bitter grief. To see you slowly pine away And could not give relief. Your weary hours and days of pain Your troubled nights are passed. And in my aching heart I know You have found sweet rest at last. Sadly missed by wife Lula and family.

PEGG—In loving memory of a dear son and brother, John Pegg, who passed away on December 2, 1949, age 19 months. God called him home, it was His will. But in our hearts we love him still. His memory is as dear today. As in the hour he passed away. We often sit and think of him When we are all alone. For memory is the only thing That grief can call its own. Lovingly remembered by mommy and daddy, Bobby, David and Jimmy.

TANSLEY—In loving memory of my dear husband, Herbert Tansley, who passed away November 26, 1951. He had a cheery smile, a pleasant way. A helping hand to all he knew; He was so kind, so generous and true. On earth he nobly did his best. Grant him Jesus heavenly rest. Lovingly remembered by wife Eva.

TANSLEY—In loving memory of Herbert W. Tansley who passed away November 26, 1951. And while he lies in peaceful sleep, His memory we shall always keep. Ever remembered and sadly missed by Norman and Murray.

OBSERVER DESCRIBES

His interpretation of these editorials was that they were in direct contradiction. That was wrong. One was a plea for planning and foresight in arranging the orderly development of any town. The other was a condemnation of a particular planning board's recommended zoning regulations.

Dr. Boulding, chairman of the planning board since its inception in 1947, continued by drawing attention to the "awfully pretty" language of J. G. Sinclair's editorial. When quoting from it regarding the ghost (the planning board) which was haunting council, in an aside to the audience, he named the ghost, "MacBeth, eh?"

Now, the Era and Express doesn't mind too much having its editorials misinterpreted, but we feel certain that Shakespeare would have preferred to have the ghost correctly named as, "Banquo". Remember, it was Banquo who's throat was cut, not MacBeth!

As the meeting progressed we began to wonder if Mr. Sinclair wasn't himself the ghost at the ty in co-operating in various community organizations where proper leadership and organization were given; and they are still active in community service in other organizations.

It is significant that at the end of two years all members, except the executive, had become inactive in arena affairs, including the council's representatives. They had either withdrawn or had not attended the few meetings that were held.

There seems to be no limit to what an inflated ego and conceited self-importance will lead to. The executive seems to think everyone is out of step but themselves. With the prejudiced attitude of the majority of the present town council and the self-righteous attitude of the arena executive, the only hope of correcting the situation is to clean house.

If the arena chairman had given the time and effort to providing the necessary direction and organization that were needed, that he has given to weeping on our shoulders, exaggerating his difficulties in an effort to excuse his incompetence, the commission might have done a good job.

banquet. Unable to attend nomination meeting because of illness, Mr. Sinclair was the topic of another speech. F. E. Underhill, chairman of the arena board, spoke in defence of this publicized group.

At one point, Mr. Underhill referred to the adage that the pen is mightier than the sword. He humorously remarked that there was truth in that statement. "Mr. Sinclair has had it in my back long enough for me to feel its power," he quipped.

As he concluded his swan song, Mr. Underhill charged Mr. Sinclair with having accused him wrongly of various actions and speeches. We could not help but mentally put MacBeth's words into Mr. Underhill's mouth. "Thou canst not say I did it; never shake thy gory locks at me."

We gathered our papers together and prepared to leave. We averted our car and recalling Mr. Underhill's McArthur-like exit from the public arena (no pun intended in this instance), we sadly hummed, "Old soldiers never die..." It had been a colorful evening.

Lets Face The Facts

Dissatisfaction with the administration of Aurora arena was evident within the commission itself, less than four months after the arena commission was established, because one of the town council's two representatives called a meeting over the chairman's head in protest at the arena executive's failure to deal promptly with arena business.

There were other individual expressions of dissatisfaction, both verbal and written, from other members and numerous criticisms from the man on the street.

It is worthy of note that criticisms were not publicized in the press until every effort had been made by the writer to correct the undesirable state of affairs in the commission.

An examination of the minutes will reveal an honest effort on my part to expedite the work of the commission and I also personally urged absentee members to attend the meetings. It was not until the situation was hopeless that my resignation was tendered, in an effort to bring the true state of affairs to the attention of the town council.

At that time all other members, except the executive, had withdrawn from active participation in arena affairs. The council ignored the situation and reappointed the old members of the commission, some of whom had been inactive, including the council's two representatives and the council accepted an unsigned and unaudited financial statement that was grossly misleading. It was not until then that public criticism was resorted to, in an effort to establish an efficient administration of arena affairs.

If the council's representatives had properly reported the true situation to the council and the council had dealt constructively with it, there would have been no cause for the present undesirable publicity.

Election and installation of officers will be conducted at the December meeting of the Junior Ladies' auxiliary, W.M.S., Trinity United church, Newmarket. The group will meet at the home of Mrs. Aylmer Crowle, 35 Millard Ave. on Tuesday, Dec. 2.

Attention is called to the change of date. The meeting has been advanced for the month of December to the first Tuesday.

Mrs. G.E.K. Howe, president of Centre Presbyterian will be president. Mrs. Howe will conduct the installation of officers. A full attendance is requested.

PLAN CHRISTMAS PARTY

The Woman's Association of Trinity United church is planning a Christmas party for its December meeting, on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 4, at 2:45 p.m. Mrs. H. M. Beer will be the guest soloist. All ladies of the congregation are cordially invited to come and enjoy a social hour together.

DAY OF PRAYER

The Baptist women's world day of prayer service will be held in Newmarket in the Christian Baptist church on Friday, Dec. 5, 2:30 p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to all women in the community to attend. This service will replace the regular December meeting of the Women's Missionary circle, Christian Baptist church.

IS IMPROVING

We are glad to report that Mrs. E. Bray is improving after being confined to her home for the past two weeks.

IMMIGRATION AND CITIZENSHIP PANEL HELD BY B. AND P.

A panel discussion on Immigration and Citizenship was held at the Nov. 17 meeting of the Newmarket Business and Professional Women's club. It was held at the King George hotel.

The meeting was chaired by the vice-president, Miss Peggy Ward. Mrs. Ernest Rank, Mrs. H. M. Hooker and Mrs. William Jones formed the panel under the chairmanship of Mrs. Wilfred Oliver. They quoted extensively from current Canadian periodicals and an informative and interesting discussion was held.

Mrs. Rose Kudelka reported on activities at United Nations assembly and Miss L. Cleland spoke on jury duty for women. A talk on immigration was given by Paul Blair, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Blair.

The club will hold its annual Christmas party for the members and their husbands and friends. It will replace the regular dinner meeting for December.

RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Jean Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Lee, Newmarket, who graduated from Lorne Park College last year, attended the Commencement exercises on Saturday, Nov. 15. She received a certificate for the Christian Workers' course and the evangelical teacher training course. She was also presented with the general proficiency scholarship in the Bible Department.

LEARN MORE ABOUT GLAD. CULTIVATION

The last general meeting for the year of the Newmarket Horticultural society was held in the school room of Trinity United church, Newmarket, on Monday, Nov. 24. It was addressed by Leonard Butt, Huttonville.

Mr. Butt, a commercial grower of gladioli, spoke on the selection and cultivation of gladioli. He was introduced to the meeting by Wilmet Hill. Mr. Butt has judged the society's glad shows for the past few years.

Informal in nature, Mr. Butt's lecture contained practical suggestions for the control of diseases in glads, proper storage and winter care, planting and fertilizing and preparing spikes for show. The speaker answered many questions from the audience.

He presented colored slides of famous gardens which he had visited on trips from Montreal to the west coast. A wide range of glads were presented in Kodachrome.

Howard Proctor moved the vote of thanks on behalf of the society. Light refreshments were served by Mrs. Elgin Evans and her committee.

GUIDES, BROWNIES PLAN CEREMONY

A guide-brownie "Flying-Up" ceremony will be held at the Christmas party of the Scout-Guide Mothers' auxiliary on Monday, Dec. 1, 7:30 p.m. The hour has been advanced to 7:30 for the young Brownies.

The annual meeting and election of officers will be held in January instead of at the regular December meeting as has been the practice for the past few years. Monday night's meeting will be a social evening with court-whist, prizes and refreshments for the mothers following the girls' program.

This is the first time that a "Flying-Up" ceremony has been held. It is an important night for the small ones who have completed all their Brownie work and are now being presented with their wings to fly up to the senior group - the Guide company.

A cordial invitation is extended to mothers of all the guides, scouts, rangers, brownies and guides in the community to attend.

A CHRISTMAS BAZAAR

A Christmas bazaar and afternoon tea will be held by the Ladies' auxiliary, Canadian Legion in the Newmarket Legion Hall on Friday, Dec. 12, 2 to 5 p.m. General convenor is Mrs. Donald Hurd. There will be a bake table and home made candy. Aprons, fancy work, knitted articles and a "touch and take" booth will be included in the bazaar. There will be a draw on a Christmas cake.

TO THE VOTERS OF NORTH GWILLIMBURY

I know how deeply you are concerned about the many problems facing the Council in North Gwillimbury, and I was the only member of Council to point out a few facts in order that you may vote intelligently in this very important election.

Never in the history of our township has there been a campaign of deceit and misrepresentation to equal the one now under way. Certain candidates claim to represent the honest, when, in reality, everything to enable the voter their objective is personal gain and the gratification of a selfish ambition. Consider carefully the candidates before you vote.

Mr. Doyle has been your Reeve for two years, and last year gave his solemn pledge to retire in 1952. For selfish reasons his pledge was broken. I have served you faithfully as Deputy Reeve for three years, and I feel that I have earned the right to serve you now as your Reeve.

When the committee from the benches waited on Council in September asking for a vote day to be on Saturday, North Gwillimbury, and I was the only member of Council prepared to grant the request.

I stand for close co-operation between benches and Council, and at all times welcome delegations to Council meetings.

If elected I will work hand in hand with you for your interests. I believe in doing everything to enable the voter to exercise the franchise with the least possible trouble.

I believe in democratic freedom; in fair play to all; in equality of privilege, and special favor to none.

On December 1st I would thank you to vote in the light of the best information available and according to your individual judgment. In the best interest of the Township of North Gwillimbury.

Optimist Teams Picked

Seventy-nine players have registered for action in the six-team Newmarket Optimist club-sponsored N.H.L. bantam-midget hockey league.

A big triple header attraction Dec. 5 will get the league under way and there will be a trio of games each Friday thereafter, reports boys' work chairman, Ken Stephens.

First night schedule is as follows: 7 p.m., Redwings vs Rangers; 8 p.m., Leafs vs Canadiens; 10 p.m., Bruins vs Black Hawks. Balance of the schedule will be published next week.

Team coaches and rosters were picked this week as follows:

Bruins: coach, Don Warner; players, P. Hillaby, T. Kurtz, H. Harper, N. Smart, W. Bellar, D. Thoms, B. Smith, D. Page, D. May, V. Hutchinson, P. Ewing, J. Galbraith, B. Corbelle.

Black Hawks: coach, Ed McMullen; players, W. McMurray, R. Allen, M. Callaghan, D. Jefferson, L. VanZant, W. Mills, B. Jones, G. Garrett, D. Sutton, N. Cowal, D. Forter, B. McEachren, K. McCutcheon.

Red Wings: coach, Fred Speer; players, B. Page, L. Stuffles, T. Tudhope, M. Bennington, J. Mulder, C. McGuire, W. Leadbeater, C. Hall, B. Millon, R. Dewsbury, H. Burling, D. Harden, K. Cassavoy, E. Edwards.

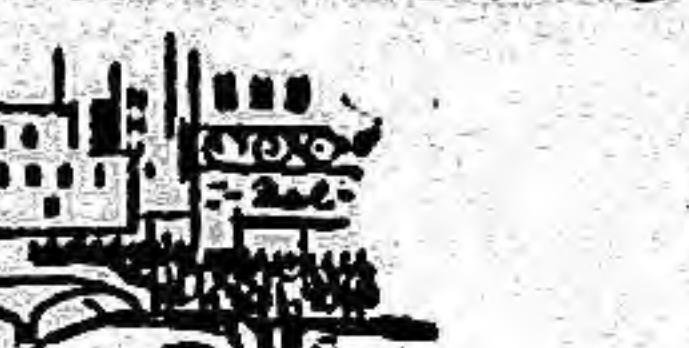

Maple Leafs: coach, Bill Macburt; players, J. McGuire, D. Purcell, D. Garuthers, K. Bell, F. Lewis, W. Arkinstall, G. Ramm, B. Wilson, E. Cullen, E. Allan, D. McKnight, D. Deavitt, D. Geer, B. Stok.

Canadiens: coach, Bill Hopper; players, J. Rich, J. Corbelle, B. Walker, R. Crouche, G. Morton, E. Holden, W. Forhan, D. Carley, B. Emmerson, B. Crouche, L. Babcock, D. Rogers, D. Lache.

Rangers: coach, Lowell Waller; players, W. Cook, J. Hope, G. Bellar, J. Hopkins, W. Cain, A. Foster, P. Farr, D. Ganton, J. Cain, G. Bugler, A. Burling, D. Zogalo, G. Campbell.

It's the convenience that counts

"When I have to run into town for something, it is pretty handy just to go to the gate and jump on the bus. Farmers on or near the highways really appreciate this great convenience. The bus service comes in very handy too for longer trips and helps us to enjoy many visits back and forth with our friends in the city."

Down The Centre

By AB. HULSE

Friday night will be a big one in Aurora as the hungry district junior hockey fans, tired of seeing Aurora juniors beaten by Collingwood Greenshirts over the years, will go to this one feeling that maybe 1953 is Aurora's year and that the Bears stand a chance of beating the Shirts.

In 10 games over the last three years the crown-bearing Collingwood club has dropped but one game, and tied one to Aurora. With an improved club this year the fans are hopeful of seeing the tables turned.

Eddie Bush has been working quietly with his boys and they will be "up" for this one. Said to have no imports, but seven key players from last year as a nucleus, Bush has added juveniles, and there are experienced junior additions as well. The Collingwood mentor called Aurora arena three times last Friday night to learn the score of the Owen Sound vs. Aurora game. Owen Sound has taken Collingwood three times, the last by one goal, but experience teaches that comparison on the basis of performances against other clubs isn't very reliable. Too bad that Aurora high school commencement is booked for the same night.

Last week Commencement took rookies Bob Fallis and Bob Veale from the team and we hope there are no casualties this week from this score. Speaking of casualties, Andy Closs, who plays a steady-head game every time out, may not start due to a knee injury sustained in the Owen Sound game. The Owen Sound game was a dandy and if it is any criterion of what the junior season is to be the fans will be packing the arena shortly. Rain kept the crowd down to around 400 last week. The club can't carry the load of travelling on attendance of that size. It was our first glimpse of the club in two weeks and the new additions have certainly added strength. Bill Maguire, rugged Pickering College boy, who hails from Toronto, is not yet in shape but will be mighty handy to have around. Al Williams and Artie Barber have strengthened the front line, although like Maguire they're not yet as far advanced as their mates in condition.

We understand Barber will enter a line composed of Veal and Fallis and this trio of players should be the talk of the group before the year is out. The Cook-Gasko-Edwards line intact from last year, and that eaves Al Williams, Bill Maguire, Noel Ash, Pepper Martin and Warren Townsley for the third year. Ash of course is a certainty and like Maguire can double on defence. George Dempsey, Wall Fines, Bob Hanna will be sure defence starters and the fourth will be named if Andy Jr. doesn't play. Joe "Cucumber" Burke is playing great hockey in the nets and his coolness under fire has won him his new title.

The Owen Sound game brought to mind the number of times the Sound and teams from these parts have played. Markham Millionaires tangled with the Sound several times since the war and during the war Owen Sound won the intermediate championship in 1942 from Markham, Aurora Army defeated Owen Sound en route to the intermediate championship in 1943. The big series with Sound teams that remain in the minds of many will be however the seasons of 1926-27 and 1939-40. The 1926-27 series was the Junior Final for the Ontario championship when there was only one series regardless of the size of the municipality.

Newmarket met Owen Sound Greys that year in the finals, the Greys winning the title at the old Mutual Street arena in Toronto, 7-3 on the round. On March 3 the Canaltown kids were beaten 5-1, bogged by stage-fright. The next game on the 7th saw a tie at 2-2 and the critics believe that the Newmarket kids over a longer series might have gone on to win that year.

The Sounders defeated Montreal in the Eastern Canada, and Port Arthur in the Memorial Cup finals. The Newmarket roster had Reg. Corbett and Colborne Ames in goal. Clarence "Scrooge" Perrault, and Chuck Thoms on defence, with Charles "Sonny" Townsley, Doug Marshall, Freddie Murray, Bruce Trivett, Murray Lister and Bill Thoms in their line-up. Bill Thoms was the only one to go pro.

Aurora Tigers played some great junior "B" hockey with Owen Sound in 1939-40 and on the season held an even record. Waterloo Siskins defeated the Sound in the finals and Aurora was the third team in the province prior to the finals.

In retrospect there seems to be a sad commentary on the present day crop of juniors. There wasn't, in our opinion, a single player on either club on Friday night likely to play even minor pro or senior hockey as it is constituted today. We don't know the answer. Whether in 25 years or 12 years the brand of hockey has changed so much that you can't compare properly. We don't think we're looking at the past through rose-colored glasses and the present in clear white light either.

There are no Bill Thoms, Benny Grants, Jack Markles, Joint McCombs, George Gees, or Tommy Burlingtons in the present-day crop. How many of the present crop will make junior "A"? The Newmarket club of 1927 was junior A in class. It costs more to run a junior hockey club today too.

Twenty-five years ago every boy on the Newmarket team was a homebrew, most of them born there. This year Owen Sound in "B" and Aurora in "C" both are largely composed of district players or "homebrews", with a minimum of imports, most of whom aren't really that except for weird O.H.A. rules in this regard.

What your opinion as to present-day players and hockey compared to that of yesteryear? We'd be glad to have your comments for future guidance and use.

SCHOMBERG IN SCRAMBLE

Schomberg plans to send a strong team into the scramble for North York Bantam league honors. The team is being sponsored by the Schomberg Lions club.

Last season the Lions reached the O.M.H.A. semi-final round in bantam D and on completion of their North York league schedule, will make another bid for the Ontario title.

Deluxe player and hockey man-about-town, Doug Marchant has been named coach of the team, Bill Hollingshead is manager and Bill Brendon, Schomberg hockey sage, is chief assister in both departments.

Newmarket Sports Editor

We've been asked why a North York Minor league? The idea in nutshell form is to give local wee nippers a spot of outside competition without travelling from here to yonder to get it.

This corner has never been sold on the idea that it's necessary to go jack-rabbiting 70, 80 or 90 miles to play hockey. That's the reason we went out for the Trolley league. Your paragraph still thinks it was the right idea.

The more we think back on the 1947-48-49 era the better we like it. Then we had competition right around home. And don't forget there has been only one larger crowd in the arena since the Hub stepped up into big time. The Trolley league executive (this corner was one of them), made mistakes.

Biggest blunder was accepting East Coast and Navy Vets and Toronto teams into the fold. They brought no one with them; their games around the circuit were a dead loss. Previous to that Sutton, Bradford, Aurora and Newmarket as a league were drawing the fans from the fire-side and doing O.K. financially.

For the life of us we can't see why an "around home" league wouldn't work again. There are five artificial ice rinks in North York at present, Stouffville, Aurora, Nobleton, Newmarket and Woodbridge. They all throw in a team and there's your circuit. Aurora certainly has enough players for a good intermediate club; Newmarket could ice a strong home brew team; Nobleton could scare up enough via the all-stars from the King-Vaughan league. Woodbridge has a team, ditto Stouffville.

Limit each team to a certain radius and allow at most one import, no more. I think we'd have a crackjack league and it would get the fans coming in droves before too long. The genuine hockey disciple, from my observations is more interested in seeing players he knows go through ice manoeuvres than a flock of skaters he never saw before and never will again.

Certainly the team executives would have less headaches than they have today. That's one of the targets we're shooting for with our North York Minor hockey league. When the small fry graduate from bantam, they go into midget league, thence to juvenile.

The natural step from there is a five or six team North York junior loop. It naturally follows when they're too old for junior, up pops your intermediate loop, tailor-made, so to speak.

Anyhow, the North York minor league got rolling this week, and this paragraph for one is hoping that if no hitch will develop in league plans three years hence, or sooner, we will have our North York intermediate trolley league.

Stray shots from the rinks: Spits are playing lousy hockey, says one fan. I don't agree. We thought last Thursday's game with Elmira was one of the best we've seen in years. Sure, Spits lost but we believe they were really skating and playing improved hockey.

In fact this corner saw three fine and dandy hockey games over the past week. First was the Spits' test with Elmira, second Bears' opener against Owen Sound.

Andy Closs and Charlie Rowntree have got a hockey team. Those Bears should make a name for themselves. The third game was as good as the other two mentioned, if not better. The two teams put on a rousing, high speed encounter. Town leaguers are drawing more customers week to week and rightly so they're giving us just as good hockey as you'll see anywhere. Their double-headers are the biggest two bits worth of hockey in the country.

Mounties Taken Lets Defused

The mighty Mounties have fallen. Mount Albert skimming along like an express train on a green light track, racked up three straight town league victories. But that victory skein is finished.

The Harold Simpson sponsored Town Regents, going at a championship gait, ran in three first period goals to set up a 4-1 win over the unbeaten Mounties Tuesday. In the nightcap game Kettleby absorbed another loss as Vandorf Bruins scored two in the first and three in the second to fashion a 5-1 win over the winless Jets.

Startoff game was quite a tussle. In it Bill Grant turned in a great puck stopping job; the addition of Harold Tunstead added authority to the Regents' rear-guard and the kid line of Laurie VanZant, Grant Morton and Jack Staley did valuable work. Stan Gibbons was the puck slapper-home to start the Regents' first period flurry rolling.

Laurie Thoms drew an assist. Bob Smith was the end man on a relay from Cliff Gunn and Deb Cooper and then rookie pivot laddie Grant Morton hit for the Regents number three. It was Deb Cooper who made the kill shot possible.

The teams tore through a scoreless middle round before the Thoms brothers, Motts and Ortle, worked in cahoots on a snappy passing exchange to wind up the Regents' scoring with Motts doing the actual shooting.

Regents had the Mounties' big scoring twosome Skip Taylor and John Leatroy, checked to a stand still. They only broke out of the Regents' close checking barrage once and that cost Bill Grant his shut-out bid, John Leatroy scoring on a pass from Elmo Palsley. It was a good game all the way, only one penalty, that to Mounties Swifty Todd in the final minute.

In the late game Doug Forfar and Bud Lehman, a Vandorf newcomer, scored first session Bruin goals. Harry Lostchuk, Kettleby big gun, put the Jets back in the game early in round two with an unassisted drive. Bruins then sewed up the game as Loring Loolittle, Clarence Fockler and Bill Kingston scored in turn. Ross Forfar and Doolittle drawing assists on Kingston's effort.

Kettleby had as much of the play as the Bruins but their passing attack was off and rock-steady defensive work by Loring Doolittle, Andy Lloyd and Mike VanNostrand and super shot stopping display by Tommy Hulme put the Jets behind the eight ball.

HASHMAN AWARD

Bears' Twosome

Aurora Bears looked impressive in their home O.H.A. winning start against Owen Sound Greys, a junior B rated crew. "That's the biggest and fastest junior C team we've seen this year" remarked one Owen Sound official. That's something when you consider the Sounders just recently staked out a win over Collingwood Greenshirts, the team the Bears must hex if they aspire to O.H.A. honors. There's little doubt, running down the Bears roster, that Andy Closs has done a grand summer-long job scouting and signing players. Bossman Closs explains the Bears' success to date thusly, "I hunt 'em up! Charlie turns 'em into hockey players". The Charlie referred to of course is none other than Charlie Rowntree, Bears' coach.

Bears look headed for big things. They should win a lot of games and provide Aurora fans with some of the best junior hockey in years. This week we'll doff our hat to the two busy Aurora side-kicks Andy Closs and Charlie Rowntree and there's a Hashman award and Roxy Theatre pass on its way to them. Meeting and chinning with chaps like Andy and Charlie makes sports writing a very, very pleasant chore.

Lose To Elmira Polar Kings

Even the old owl who hovers up on the highest arena rafters along with 900 of the faithful were muttering "you'll never see a better or a faster hockey game than that". That referred to the Spits - Elmira Polar Kings clash at the Arena Thursday.

Speed and more speed was the keynote; both teams had it. They set a sizzling pace and kept it up for 60 minutes. Spits kicked in with a greatly improved game over their first outing here and most fans were ready and willing to overlook the marks on the score sheet which read Elmira 11, Newmarket 7.

Polar Kings, last year's intermediate B champs, were a hustling lot. One could readily discern where the name Polar Kings came from; they were as cool as ice around the Spits' cage.

They were super opportunists. They did what they had to do there with the minimum of effort and that was what meant the points in their stocking. The score-board read 4-1 for the invaders after the first, 8-4 before the scrapers came out again and the teams traded three goals apiece in the final chapter.

Myles McInnis, Fred Haughton and Don Gibson were Spits king size scoring threesome. McInnis ran in two, Haughton two and Spider Gibson one. Myles McInnis was the puck slapper around the goal mouth for our first round score. Fred Haughton, skating tirelessly, was the pass supplier.

Spits filed three paydirt hit claims in the middle session. Bill Mabbett's perseverance got us the first. Swivel hips Willie dug the biscuit out of the corner, whirled away from Elmira defenders and punched the biscuit through Elmira goalie's pads.

Fred Haughton re-routed a pass from Don Gibson and Myles McInnis; Don Smith turned a Haughton to Tom Brodie pass into the Elmira cage for the Spits' third of the period. Trailing 8-4; heading into the final round; Spits pushed hard to whittle the visitors' lead. They shot two quickies to open the third. Elmira's Frank Carroll, visiting rear-guard, was holed up in the sin bin at the time for holding.

McInnis potted a Keith Collings pass at 1:35 and 40 seconds later Don Gibson whacked home a count shot during a goal-mouth scramble.

Those tries sliced Elmira to 8-6. Elmira came on strong again. Brown scoring twice and Schwind once while Fred Haughton registered on a relay from Tommy Brodie.

It was a good hockey game to watch. Elmira were "puck hounds". Spits fell into the groove and started skating. More of the same and they'll take a lot of beating and will fill the pews at the Gardens. Bill Mulholland, our big pads wearer, made some remarkable stops but let in a couple of "softies". Ken Broughton and Ross Hochberg defensively were on the beam. Don Smith played an impressive two-way game. Tommy Brodie went all out to gather in two assists and turned in a greatly improved game. In fact Spits were much better from every angle.

Bears Win O.H.A. First

Charlie Rowntree and Andy Closs appear to have a hockey club on their hands. Roaming the ice lanes with that championship glitter in their eyes, Aurora Bears' skated, stick-handled, checked and shot their way to a 4-2 win over Owen Sound Greys Friday in the Aurora arena.

It was a handsome start for the Bears in O.H.A. competition and with the Greys carrying a B rating it points the way to a banner winning season for the Bears and Bears supporters. Bears won and did so because they not only outscored their rivals but out hustled them over the 60 minute stretch.

That stretch was marked by a first period of close checking. The middle round speeded up as the teams gathered their skating legs and it was here that the Bears put the stranglehold on the win with two unanswered goals. The third round was a humdinger. Referee Bob Peters had to hand out 21 penalties, all minor, to keep his house in order but permitted the boys enough leeway to provide the first night-fans with something to more than offset their charge at the ticket window.

It was a game in which the shots on goal were fewer than usual, an indication this was man to man hockey, that the checking was close and the defenses doing picket duty well and that while the puck was buzzing around the rival cages the boys could not get in position for a direct drive. Our count showed 25 shots for the Bears, 23 for the Sounders.

The Joe Gasko, Bobbs Cook, Grant Edwards line contributed two goals and therefore stole the top honors. Here's how the scoring went. The teams split a goal each in the first period. Geo. Dempsey potted the Bears starting-away tally. Big George going well on defense let fly with a 40 footer. That was scored with the Sounders' Dault in the box. Dault no sooner got back than he made amends by beating Joey Burke from close in. Al Williams ex-Marlboro, put the Bears in front in the second by re-routing a Geo. Dempsey shot backwards. Joe Gasko did a repeat effort after accepting a pass from Bobbs Cook.

Aurora Bears' Al Williams got the gate for an elbow at 5:47 of the third and while the speedy winger was away, Sounders hit back via Bev Byers to make it 3-2. Grant Edwards put the insurance goal on the Aurora ledger at 18:34 with Joe Gasko the helper. Edwards' goal was a life saver as the Sounders were striving for the tying goal.

Bears looked sharp against the higher rated rivals. Our Bears' three star selection flat out Joe Gasko, Geo. Dempsey and Joey Burke. Andy Closs and

MIDGETS PRACTICE FRIDAY

Calling all Hub midget hockey players. Coach Lowell Waller sends out word that the midgets will stage their initial practice at the arena tomorrow, Friday evening, from 7 to 8 p.m.

All players interested in playing midget hockey in the newly organized North York Midget hockey league are asked to be on hand.

The Newmarket Optimist club is sponsoring the team. The local puck pursuing pack will vie with Richmond Hill, Woodbridge, Nobleton and Aurora for the North York title.

Optimist midgets will get into league action in Aurora Dec. 4 against Bill Mundell's Aurora opposites and will be at home against Richmond Hill Friday, Dec. 5, at 9 p.m.

LEAGUE STARTS TUESDAY

The blood and thunder four-team Aurora Town Hockey league will swing open the arena doors to welcome customers next Tuesday evening.

In the league's start-off, double-header, Mickey Sutton's Ditch Diggers have been drawn to oppose the league's new entry, Queen's York Rangers. Chapman's Aces will cross sticks with Victory Flyers in the other session of the twin bill.

Big plans are afoot to get the league spinning in high gear. First game of the double-header is corded for 7.30. As yet an executive hasn't been named to guide the loop but this important matter will be taken care of this week.

THE Calvert SPORTS COLUMN

by Elmer Ferguson

THIS IS THE SECOND OF THREE COLUMNS, BRIEFLY OUTLINING THE AMAZING GROWTH OF THE NATIONAL HOCKEY LEAGUE, NOW 35 YEARS OLD.

The National Hockey League, born in 1917, and now celebrating its thirty-fifth birthday, became international for the first time in the season of 1924-25 when it was only seven years old. It was in that year that Boston Bruins entered the League, under the ownership of the late Charles F. Adams and Boston was destined to become one of the greatest hockey centres in the world.

The same year, 1924-25, Montreal Maroons purchased a franchise in the National League, giving Montreal two professional teams for the first time since the season of 1916-17, and creating one of the most bitter, and also most colorful rivalries in Canadian sports history.

In 1925-26, two more United States teams appeared in the League, Pittsburgh Pirates and New York Americans. Pittsburgh's team was made up on a basis of the amateur Hornets, title-holders of the United States the previous season, while Americans bought the Hamilton franchise and team intact.

In 1926-27, major league hockey had lured in three more United States teams, representing two cities new to major hockey. The powerful Rangers came into existence in New York; Detroit interests, purchasing the Victoria team of the defunct Pacific Coast League, became a franchise-holder, Chicago entered a strong team in the major group by purchasing the Portland team of the Pacific Coast League. It was in 1926 that the Pacific Coast League expired, as a major organization, throwing on the market a flood of playing stars destined to write history in the N.H.L. notably Eddie Shore, the Cook brothers, Dutton, Gardiner and Boucher. This helped to make possible the new eastern teams, and brought into eastern hockey a great array of new names, new faces, new figures, destined for stardom, and with tremendous customer-appeal.

The Pittsburgh franchise was operated in Philadelphia for one season, 1930-31, thus bringing to a total of six, and the six greatest cities in the United States, where major league hockey had been played within the period from 1924, indicating the wild-fire fashion in which the grip of the thrilling Canadian sport had taken hold. St. Louis, entering the League in 1934, took over the Ottawa players, but remained for only one season. Montreal Maroons retired, then New York (or Brooklyn) Americans, leaving the present six-team set-up.

NEXT: HOCKEY'S REVOLUTION.

VOTE FOR VALE

TO THE VOTERS of the Town Of Newmarket:

During the years I have served both as a member of the Town Council and as Mayor, I have in cooperation with the other members of Council been directly associated with:

1. Bringing the Military Camp to Newmarket;
2. Having the Director, The Veterans' Land Act establish a subdivision in Newmarket;
3. Negotiating the purchase of the military camp, and the construction of the fine housing development located thereon;
4. Bringing The Canadian Hoffman Machinery Company Ltd. factory to Newmarket;
5. Installing artificial ice in the Newmarket Arena;
6. Having the Armitage Heights subdivision built in Newmarket;
7. Having the Regional Office of The Veterans Land Act located in Newmarket;
8. Having the District Office of The Ontario Provincial Police moved to Newmarket.

I became Mayor of Newmarket in 1947, and at that time the industrial assessment was only $247,615.00 for general purposes, and $118,000.00 more for school purposes. Now it is $761,373.00 for all purposes representing an increase of $513,758.00 for general purposes and $395,000.00 for school purposes. This is an easing of the burden of taxes on the home-owner, and is in decided contrast to the situation which prevailed before I became Mayor.

Despite great demands and increased costs, each year since 1947 the Town has had a balanced budget with a surplus, and as an indication of how the Town finances have been handled during this period, we were able in 1952 to sell the town debentures above par as compared with a great many municipalities which have been forced to sell substantially below par.

In 1953 the Town will be faced with financing the rebuilding of Main Street, and possibly with the financing of a sewage disposal plant. This latter project in itself will present many acute problems as it is manifestly unfair to ask those property owners who cannot use the sewage system to pay for the same.

With this in mind if you feel that I can adequately handle the many problems that will be confronting the Town then I respectfully ask you to give me your support for Mayor in 1953.

If you wish to have a car drive you to the polls, please telephone my Office, phone No. 120.

Retiring Mayor And Council Present Reports For 1952: School And Hydro Reviews

Held at the Lions Hall on the evening of Nov. 20, nomination night in Aurora would have gone down in local history as one of the most orderly and best-mannered meetings but for an outburst of mud-slinging and abusive tactics on the part of two former mayors of the town, and one lady making a second bid for office after suffering a severe defeat last year.

The very large audience heard Mayor Rose and members of council deliver accounts of their stewardships during the year and accepted assurances of work accomplished with dignified aplomb and a total absence of questions or heckling. It was late in the evening when business seemed nearing a close that former mayor, Dr. C. R. Boulding and Mr. F. R. Underhill, launched tirades at the Aurora News Page and its editor, J. G. Sinclair, who was at home because of illness.

Neither of the two speakers was seeking office, although they indulged their audience in long harangues which have given rise to resentment, many remarks of a personally abusive character having been uttered in the absence of the man who was being attacked. It is felt that advantage was taken of an audience which had gathered to hear addresses concerned with town business and not personal matters which the speakers appeared anxious to ventilate.

Mrs. Moffitt, the lady candidate for council election, described the writings in Aurora News Page as "putrid". Someone recalled the instance where the celebrated Dr. Johnson was accused by a lady who complained of something he had written which she disliked. In a temper the lady called Dr. Johnson a "nincompoop." Turning to her, Dr. Johnson replied: "Madam, I can give you reasons for what I write but only God can give you an understanding."

Stewardships
Mayor Rose paid tribute to the work of his council, which he described as a "heavy year." He rightly claimed that a great deal had been accomplished. He handed out sheafs of praise where he felt they were due. He gave special commendation to the newly-created Parks board. He gave praise to the police. He noted the reasonably high issuance of building permits, indicative of town growth and progress. He said that while a great deal had been done, much remained to be done.

Mayor Rose covered the range of council activities. He described his council as a "colorful one." By which he meant, it was assumed, that they were not "yes men." He appealed for a renewal of confidence. If returned to office he would again do his best. The mayor's address was well received.

Reeve Cook and Deputy
Reeve Cook paid tribute to the large crowd in attendance despite the rainy night. He dealt with matters that had come within his orbit as chairman of the finance committee. He expressed his belief in the future of Aurora. If returned he promised to serve the town as he had tried to do in the past.

Deputy-Reeve Murray said he had thought of quitting this year but found the challenge of the future too strong. He outlined progress made by his streets committee. He said there was a need for more paved streets. He referred to the rising costs involved in graveling and oiling of streets. He stated also that while council work had been a pleasure to him, it had meant a sacrifice for Mrs. Murray. He asked for a renewal of support.

By the close of the meeting the deputy-reeve had received an acclamation.
Councillors
Councillor Corbett dealt with the duties that had fallen to him as chairman of the Property committee, a position formerly held by Councillor Jones, to whom he paid a strong tribute. Mr. Corbett also commended Mayor Rose on the excellent job he had done as mayor of the town, especially in his conduct of the meetings.

Councillor Jones reviewed the work of the fire and water committees.

ORATORICAL BLITZ

Boulding, Underhill Attack 'Painful, Pitiful Exhibition'

In what was obviously a premeditated attempt to discredit the wide influence which the Aurora News Page has gained in Aurora, through its increasing circulation, Dr. C. R. Boulding and Mr. F. R. Underhill delivered long speeches at the nomination meeting on Thursday night, November 20. Much of what they had to say was in the nature of a personal attack on its editor.

It all happened after a most orderly meeting, at which retiring municipal representatives had made reports that were entirely free from personalities. Dr. Boulding stirred his verbal cudgion for over half an hour. How long Mr. Underhill fulminated is uncertain, but a reporter's notebook credits him with nine pages of statements, mostly concerned with attacks on the Aurora News Page.

It is said that Mr. Underhill has two set speeches. One is in praise of himself as the holder of many town offices; and the other is a denunciation of the editor of the Aurora News Page for the reports he has published on the admittedly bad condition of the arena, which Councillor Corbett recently described as "deplorable." Mr. Underhill is chairman of the arena board.

Dr. Boulding is chairman of the Planning board, which has been endeavoring over a long period to get a contentious zoning by-law passed through council. In recent council discussions he came into conflict with the town solicitor, Mr. Lorne C. Lee, who has opposed the zoning by-law in its present form. The Aurora News Page has opposed the zoning by-law and certain other activities of the Planning board, and consequently has incurred the displeasure of chairman Boulding.

Towards the end of his tirade, Mr. Underhill exclaimed: "Wish he was here tonight," in a reference to the Aurora News Page editor. "Hadn't the guts to be here," a lady supporter of Mr. Underhill called out, in evident chagrin at the failure of what has been suggested was a frame-up demonstration.

Dr. Boulding
Recounting at length his municipal experience, Dr. Boulding told his audience of how 20 years back he had begun to battle his way to the mayoralty, having been councillor for six years and mayor for seven. He instanced the many things that had been done in those years, including buying a fire truck, setting up of council chamber and clerk in one office, building of the rink, paving of streets, waterworks, disposal plant and sewage undertakings.

After reviewing his part in such local activities, Dr. Bould-

ing, came to the subject of zoning, and after referring to the need for increased education on planning he mentioned two editorials that had appeared in the Era and Express. The one in the Era pages recommended planning and the other in the Aurora News Page said "Not for Aurora."

"The actual fact is, Aurora News Page editorials have supported planning but have condemned the present zoning by-law proposed for Aurora, and did so in the editorial entitled 'Not for Aurora,' which was published on October 9, 1952. The editorial contained this sentence: 'Planning is necessary. But not planning that ties up a community for an indefinite number of years. That is the essence of the proposed zoning by-law which is bad in principle and would be worse in practice.' Ed.)

Dr. Boulding referred to a talk he had with the editor of Aurora News Page two years ago and did not gather that he knew much about planning. He advised his hearers to "trust us," saying that speakers on planning would be brought to town and hoped they would come and hear them.

To bolster his criticism of the Aurora News Page, Dr. Boulding even found it necessary to quote an anonymous letter in the Banner, which it claimed was written by a Newmarket business man.

"Putrid"
Mrs. Moffitt, candidate for council, who spoke next, in a bitter attack on the Aurora News Page, described its writings as "putrid." "Our own Banner," she said, "gives us nice publicity."

Mr. Underhill
"Don't call it the 'Era,'" said Mr. Underhill. "Call it the fifth column of the Era and Express." After which he proceeded to draw attention to the numerous boards he had served on and the services he had rendered to the town. He said he had been misrepresented. Things he had never done or said had been attributed to him (in the Aurora News Page).

He said that most of the criticism of the arena board came from people who had never served the people in any way

PEACE IN THE OLD TOWN

There were twenty nominations for the council seats, including the mayoralty, but in the end acclamations took the place of contests. We congratulate Dr. Crawford Rose on again becoming mayor of the town. We know of no man in Aurora who could fill the position with more distinction than he. In the last few remaining minutes before the closing hour, Mr. Alex Bell, who had been nominated for the office of mayor, conceded to Dr. Rose. There are two changes only on council.

The retirement of Councillor Cliff Corbett is a matter for sincere regret. He has rendered excellent service to his town during his years of office in council. In his place we welcome Mr. W. Davidson, a man of sense and good judgment, whose civic interest we have seen displayed as a member of the recreation commission. For several reasons we regret very much the departure of Councillor Ralph Tucker, who stepped out to let nominee Mrs. Moffitt in. We disagreed with Mr. Tucker on some matters he supported but he is a man of ability.

Of Mrs. Moffitt, his acclaimed successor, it would be inopportune for us to speak since we do not know her personally and are unfamiliar with her qualifications for public service. We do know that she found it necessary to tell a large audience at the nomination meeting on Thursday night, Nov. 20, that she considered our writings were "putrid." The only occasion when we have spoken with Mrs. Moffitt was when she thanked us on the telephone for what she described as a "lovely write-up" of a member of her family just returned from a business trip to South Africa.

Retiring public school trustees and hydro commissioner, Mr. Baldwin, were all acclaimed. There will be peace in the old town on December 1.

OUR ANSWER

Two former mayors of the town of Aurora made it their business on Thursday night, Nov. 20, to attack us and the newspaper we edit. We suppose we should feel flattered at the thought that Dr. Boulding and Mr. F. R. Underhill recognize that the power and influence of the Aurora News Page is such that they should feel it necessary to try and discredit it, even with weapons of abuse and misrepresentation.

For reasons purely personal we did not attend the nomination meeting on Thursday evening last. Even if those personal reasons had not existed, we were under no obligation to anyone to attend the meeting so long as it was given competent news coverage for our readers. Such news coverage was given by a first-class reporter whose notes have been transcribed and published in other columns of this issue. If under other circumstances, where the personal reasons which kept us away had not existed, we would in all probability have been in attendance at the nomination meeting, as we have been for the previous three years.

The reports of the late happenings at the nomination meeting show evidence of a concentrated and premeditated effort on the part of Dr. Boulding and Mr. Underhill to decry us and our newspaper. The learned doctor even found it necessary to refer to an anonymous letter in the Banner to give ballast to his ballyhoo. As for Mr. Underhill, he described the paper we edit as the "fifth column", and this reminds us of a classic analogy which appears to be peculiarly appropriate to the technique he has followed for some time regarding us.

The technique Mr. Underhill has followed in our case is to allege that we have attacked almost every organization in town. He cannot bring the evidence to prove his allegation and for the simple reason that it is a complete fabrication. It was Hitler who said that if you tell a big enough lie over and over again people will come to believe it. We deeply regret that a former mayor of Aurora should feel himself obligated to practice such a technique as far as we are concerned.

We must conclude that Dr. Boulding takes exception to us because we have opposed the zoning by-law and other activities of the planning board of which he is chairman. We shall continue to oppose what we think is wrong. The planning board has cost this town a sum of money approaching $5,000. What have the citizens gotten for their money? Let him and his board answer that question. Most of the money has gone into the pockets of an out-of-town consultant.

The arena is in a mess, portions of it being boarded off because the seating is condemned as unsafe. All summer long the arena board has failed to get necessary work done. Chairman Underhill has continued to abuse us because we have dared to keep the facts before the people. What does he think a newspaper is for? Does he think it exists for soft soap applications and for recording votes of confidence? If so he has another guess coming to him as far as Aurora News Page is concerned.

We don't like being abused, especially behind our back. We have therefore to suggest that Dr. Boulding meet us in public debate on the zoning by-law; and Mr. Underhill meet us in public debate on anything we have published on the arena. If they are agreeable, we are ready. In the event they are not agreeable, we suggest that henceforth they cease their rantings as far as we and our paper are concerned.

COUNCIL SIDELIGHTS

Unless Council Can Control The Planning Board It Had Better Go Out Of Existence

Among the correspondence read at the meeting of council on Nov. 17, was a letter which proved to be the most outstanding highlight of the evening's proceedings. This communication came from Mr. W. Stuart Mills, vice-chairman of the planning board and it announced his resignation, to become effective at once.

We are not suggesting that the resignation of Mr. Mills is so very important. We don't think it is. What we are suggesting is that the terms in which Mr. Mills couched his resignation are important, shedding, as they do, a clear light on how the functions of the planning board can come to be regarded.

If the planning board is to supersede the will of council it is time that so ambitious an organization is ended. Council is elected by the will of the people, by popular vote. The people can control its actions by ousting members whose work is not in accordance with the wishes of the majority of the taxpayers. Over the functions of the planning board the people have no direct control, since they do not elect its members.

What Really Happened
What really happened can be stated briefly. On October 14 a joint meeting of council and the planning board was held. Its purpose was to discuss the zoning by-law. To that meeting the planning board had invited an outside lawyer to attend and take part in the discussions. Mayor Rose offered no objections to the attendance of the out-of-town lawyer and he received an invitation to be present. Later, when it was made clear to the mayor that such a course would amount to a breach of professional etiquette, since Mr. Lee was the town's legal adviser, the invitation to the out-of-town lawyer was cancelled.

It is obvious that Mayor Rose had not considered such a situation when the invitation to the out-of-town lawyer was given. His invitation had been given quite clearly as a matter of courtesy to the planning board. But when he had to choose between an act of courtesy and a plain breach of professional etiquette as far as Mr. Lee was concerned, he rightly and promptly supported the position of the town solicitor and withdrew the offending invitation.

Because the invitation to the outside lawyer was cancelled, Mr. Mills appeared to have taken offence. The degree of his offence is reflected in his resignation and the terms in which he couched it. It would appear that Mr. Mills felt that unless the planning board could bring someone he chose to speak to council his services would be ended. That is the central argument contained in his letter of resignation and in the circumstances concerned we suggest that it is a bad and unsupportable argument. Councillor Jones hit the nail on the head when he asked at the last meeting of council "if anyone could come to council and talk?"

The Town Solicitor
The discussion in council on the evening of Nov. 17 again revealed certain degrees of vacillation on the part of a few members. Deputy-Reeve Murray moved a motion that the Mills resignation be accepted, together with an expression of regret. This motion was seconded by Councillor Corbett who maintained his stand when an amendment was moved by Councillor Tucker and seconded by Councillor King.

Councillor Tucker expressed the opinion that Mr. Mills was better informed on planning matters than any other member of the planning board, a differentiation which may not please all concerned! When the amendment was put to the vote it was carried four to three, Councillors Corbett, Jones and Murray voting against it. The deputy-reeve, who had moved the motion for acceptance, now swung round and voted with Councillors Tucker, Davis and King.

It seemed a strange amendment to support, having regard

PLANNING BOARD

Mr. S. W. Mills Resigns And Questions Council Procedure

(Editor's Note: The following is the text of Mr. W. Stuart Mills' letter of resignation, read to council on Monday night, Nov. 17, and which we have commented on in this week's "Council Sidelights").

Aurora,
November 15, 1952.
The Mayor and Council,
Town of Aurora.
Gentlemen,

On Tuesday, Oct. 14, considerable discussion developed concerning the episode which resulted in the withdrawal of an invitation to Mr. Fred Kemp to speak to council that evening. This episode involved the mayor, Mr. Lee, and certain other members of council who were not named.

My contribution to the discussion was such that I believe it was made perfectly clear that I regarded the matter as very serious not only in respect to the discourtesy to Mr. Kemp, but also in that the action taken by the mayor and his advisory group of councillors reflected an erroneous view of the relations which, under the planning act, must be maintained between the council and the planning board.

Since that evening, as far as I know, the council has seen fit to take no action in the matter and has thus concurred in the action of the mayor and the point of view which resulted in the mayor's withdrawal of the invitation to Mr. Fred Kemp.

I believe that on the evening of Tuesday, October 14, the discussion revealed quite clearly that Mr. Lee's contention was simply a whim, for in my view no evidence whatever was adduced to the contrary.

Additionally, the planning board being a body corporate constituted by council and charged with certain lawful duties, is now in an intolerable position in that the council has seen fit to assume the right to control the kind of evidence which the planning board may present to it in support of their recommendations.

I regret very much that these circumstances have arisen, but I feel that the strongest measures, and the most forceful action I can take are necessary, and I therefore tender my resignation to become effective at once.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) W. Stuart Mills.

Key Man in Averagetown, Canada

If you live in an average Canadian community, you can easily see that it's changing.

Everywhere you look, new construction tells a story of progress. Here, perhaps, is a handsome new store. There, a new bridge, office building, power plant, highway, housing project... or some other vital development that makes life better for all.

But do you know that many of these developments are made possible by a certain Key Man? And can you guess who he is?

He's the typical life insurance policyholder—representing millions of Canadians.

How can he do all this just by owning life insurance?

Because a large part of his premium dollars is invested for him in sound securities which help finance many such projects. Each year, more than 225 million life insurance dollars are put to work in these useful ways from coast to coast!

The life insurance policyholder is a helpful citizen in another way. For the money he puts aside for the future helps safeguard his family from ever becoming a financial burden to others.

All in all, he's an asset to his community and the nation!

HOG PRODUCERS TO DISCUSS MARKETING SCHEME

The York County Hog Producers' Association, according to an advertisement appearing in the issue of the Era and Express, is holding a meeting of the producers on Monday at Newmarket to discuss the hog marketing scheme which apparently is expected to become effective on January 1.

It will be recalled that several months ago, such a scheme was voted on by the producers and presented to the Minister of Agriculture, Col. the Hon. T. L. Kennedy.

We presume the intervening time has been required to work out some of the details and mechanics of the proposition and the directors of the York County Association have arranged to have Mr. Chas. Newton, Barrie, a director of the Ontario association, explain the plan and discuss with the producers, its working. This should be a real opportunity to get first-hand knowledge on this important subject.

The meeting is to be held in the Agricultural board room at Newmarket, commencing at 2 p.m.

KING TOWNSHIP'S ASSESSMENT UP $170,850 IN 1953

The total assessment of the municipality of King township for 1953 has been set at $5,536,450, an increase of $170,850 over the 1952 assessment, assessor Ed Reddick told the township council.

The Holland Marsh assessment for 1953 is $492,400, an increase of $10,050 over the 1952 figure. The municipality's population in 1952 is 7,148, which is slightly over a 1,000 increase over the previous year.

The present population of 7,148 is about the same as it was in the year 1880, 72 years ago, when saw mills, grist mills and small industries were flourishing, Reeve Armstrong pointed out. After that time, the trend was toward western and northern parts of Ontario and the Canadian west.

The Canadian papermaking industry has developed into four main branches each making a variety of papers under the general heading of Newsprint, Fine Papers, Wrapping Papers and Boards.

There are three parts of our annual report that I think would particularly interest you:

DEPOSITS: Because of your confidence, and that of 1,900,000 other Canadians in all walks of life, the B of M holds more than two billion dollars in deposits. Fully half these deposits are made up of the savings of private citizens... hard-earned dollars that mean a backlog of money for their use. At the end of the Bank's year, on October 31st, 1952, total deposits stood at the record figure of $2,147,900,483.

LOANS: During the year, your Bank made many thousands of loans to business and industrial enterprises for production of every kind—to farmers, fishermen, oil men, miners, lumbermen and ranchers—to citizens.

My Bank has just completed its 135th year with assets amounting to $2,286,477,930—the highest figure in its history. The B of M's growth is part of the growth of all Canada and of this community, and I am proud of the place my customers have in this story of progress.

My Bank Reports to you for 1952

It's a good report, especially because it reflects the story of hundreds of communities "MY BANK" lives and works in across the land... indeed, the whole Canadian story of solid progress for the past year.

And it's a report you can be proud of, for it's about the money you have on deposit at the B of M. Throughout the year, your Bank keeps that money hard at work—expanding, improving and pioneering Canadian enterprise of every description and size... financing Canadians of every calling and building Canada in every sense. You not only help yourself when you save at the B of M... you also help your country.

of every calling, and to Provincial and Municipal Governments and School Districts. At October 31st, B of M loans amounted to $712,179,816—the highest figure in the history of the Bank.

INVESTMENTS: Always keeping a good proportion of the money on deposit in quickly available form, your Bank has $987,563,535 invested in high-grade government bonds and other public securities which have a ready market. This money helps to finance government projects for the betterment of Canada and the welfare of her people. In addition, the B of M holds $121,116,603 in other securities—mainly short-term credits to industry.

News Of The W.I.

News for this column must be in the office Monday night. Copy must be written as briefly as possible and confined to news and reports. Other than routine reports and announcements will be printed separately.

The Sharon branch members entertained their husbands and families in Sharon hall Nov. 14. Over 70 sat down to supper. Afterwards we all enjoyed slides shown by Anna Lewis; topic, "Glimpses of Historical Ontario." We also enjoyed the singing voices of the three Sharon girls, Donna Watson, Patsy Hall and Elizabeth Newirth, as well as a social evening.

The December meeting will be held at Mrs. K. Weddel's home, Dec. 3, at 2.30. Roll call, an unusual way to wrap a gift; donation of soft toys. Report of convention will be given by Mrs. E. Evans. There will be Christmas carols and an exchange of Christmas gifts, not to exceed 30¢. Refreshment committee: Mrs. J. Greig, Mrs. G. Wright and Mrs. E. R. Donaldson.

The Newmarket branch met on Thursday, Nov. 20, at the agriculture board room for the regular meeting with Mrs. Campbell in the chair.

Mrs. Robert Lewis and Mrs. Cockburn gave interesting reports from the annual convention. Each member answered the roll call, giving her maiden name and the collection of old photographs of the members taken in childhood days were very amusing.

Mrs. Pollock, the new district president, has accepted an invitation to be with us at our December meeting. The meeting closed with refreshments and a social half hour.

The Elmhurst Beach branch will meet at the home of Mrs. Boynton Dec. 3. The lunch committee: Mrs. Lunn, Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Evans.

Union Street branch will meet at the home of Mrs. Edwin Breen Thursday, Dec. 4, at 2 p.m. Topic: "Scatter gladness, joy and mirth all along the paths of earth." Reply, Mrs. J. R. Leaney. Roll call, "Your favorite Christmas carol." A Christmas card shower and exchange of gifts among members only. The report of the convention will be given by the delegate. Hostesses, Mrs. Eric Denham, Mrs. Frank Graham, Mrs. E. Whitfield, Mrs. Roy Cowieson.

One of the most interesting meetings of the year for the Belhaven branch was held at the home of Mrs. Norman King with 25 members and two visitors and three children present. After a brief business session of preparing a program for the Keswick meeting and deciding on Christmas baskets, Mrs. Smith, the convener, took the chair. The grandmothers provided the program. Mrs. Sweetman, after giving a short address, gave two poems. Mrs. Mann gave a very enjoyable reading.

Mrs. Smith conducted a contest to determine who had the most grandchildren, with Mrs. Mundy being the winner. Mrs. Sedore gave two interesting papers, one concerning the history of the Lake Simcoe area. A reading was given by Mrs. Mainprize. Mrs. Kydd demonstrated a Christmas centre piece.

Mrs. Smith conducted another contest to determine who had the most named articles in their purse with Mrs. Kydd the winner.

A lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. King, Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Geo. Fairbairn.

Bogartown branch met at the home of Mrs. Jack Preston Nov. 19. There were 27 members present. Members of the Gormley institute were guests. The roll call was answered with "Name a famous woman of yesterday and why?" Mrs. Roy Harper welcomed the Gormley institute.

Gormley ladies provided the program, with their president, Mrs. Kays in the chair. The program was opened with community singing. Mrs. Gamble gave a talk on the Lord Tweedmuir History Book. She enlightened us on some of the historical places around Gormley.

Mrs. Bayeroff read a poem "An Idyll of an arm." Mrs. Harry Smith gave a splendid paper on "Friendship." Roy Smith and Mrs. Roy Howlett sang a duet, "Friendship with Jesus."

Discussion on the United Nations took place under the following headings: (1) Food and Agriculture (2) Health (3) UNESCO: Education Science and Culture (4) Universal and Declaration of Human Rights.

A contest was conducted by Mrs. Boynton. After the singing of "God Save Our Queen," a social half-hour brought to a close a most interesting program.

The Common Round...

STILL LISTENING

At the W.I. area convention luncheon at the Royal York, the most satisfying event, apart from consoling the inner man, was the talk on "Horizons Unlimited" by Don Henshaw.

It is one of the most satisfying sensations I know of to sit back, relax and listen to a man who never hesitates, never repeats himself and who leaves one with the feeling, aptly expressed by a hearer, that she wished he had kept on another half hour.

Mr. Henshaw, whose original home was Miami, Fla., coming to Canada on business, met and fell in love with a Canadian girl. So far so good, but as the novelists say, "the course of true love never runs smooth."

In this case the bar to immediate felicity was the lady's papa, who had at one time suffered in a business deal in Florida.

However, after we heard Mr. Henshaw's eloquence most of us felt it must not have been long till the opposition weakened and the lovers were united.

While this was going on Mr. Henshaw became enamored with Canada, and applied for Canadian citizenship. Then he said something which every natural born Canadian should take to heart. He said that only after you have sat in a court room, surrounded by members of tense people, waiting to see if their citizenship papers will be approved, can one really appreciate citizenship; you do not just take it casually as a matter of course.

Listening to Mr. Henshaw, I think we, as never before, appreciated our rich heritage as Canadians.

We must, Mr. Henshaw told us, encourage, conserve, build up our youth that they may, in turn be the builders of a greater Canada. This is becoming more and more important as Canadians in many walks of life are being offered inducements to go to other countries. He told of one young Canadian who was offered a salary so many times greater than the one he was in receipt of, to go to the States. He was tempted, he told Mr. Henshaw, for he had a wife and children, and he turned it down.

Why? He said he wanted to stay and help build Canada! We were told, too, that Canadians are far too inarticulate about Canada. If we are proud of Canada, why not let the world know it. Then, as an after thought he supposed that the Americans come up here and

DOMINION BANK'S ASSETS, DEPOSITS SHOW SHARP RISE

The financial statement of The Dominion Bank for the year ended October 31 last shows assets and deposits up sharply, both items recording the largest increase in the history of the bank.

Total assets exceed the half billion dollar mark for the first time, amounting to $517 millions on October 31, up $59 millions from the previous year.

Deposits at $407 millions show an increase of $57 millions. Commercial loans and discounts are down $5 millions to $205 millions. But call and short loans against securities in Canada and abroad increased sharply so total loans recorded a rise of $8 millions to $233 millions, a year-end peak.

The statement reveals a strong liquid position. Cash assets are equivalent to 20.8 percent of liabilities to the public. Immediately available assets are 60.2 percent of all public liabilities.

Profits for the twelve-month period, before providing for depreciation and income taxes, established a new peak. However, income taxes rose by $125,000 and provision for depreciation by $13,000 so that net profit was reduced $10,000 to $1,158,000. This is equivalent to $1.05 a share as compared with $1.67 a share in the previous year.

Security holdings, largely Dominion and provincial bonds, amount to $164 millions, an increase of $49 millions.

to the fact that council has not changed the position it formerly took up, in concurring with the mayor's action and other supporting members of council, that the invitation to the out-of-town lawyer be cancelled. It is clear that only a retraction by council of this stand could justify Mr. Mills in reconsidering his resignation to the point of withdrawing it. Since council did not retract (as per the suggestion contained in the third paragraph of Mr. Mills' letter), it has provided no reasons that would enable the resignation to be withdrawn.

A Good Report

The report presented by Mr. R. H. Corner, chairman of the Parks board, justifiably evoked most favorable comment from the mayor and members of council. It revealed a great amount of clean-up work having been carried out in various parks in town. The work done on the McMahon park, which includes the bowling greens, tennis courts and playground, has put it into good shape. Other parks have been cleared of weeds and brush and a large number of seedlings, tulip bulbs and evergreens have been planted. As far as the streets were concerned, the board paid tribute to town foreman, Mr. J. Goulding, for clearance of weeds. Tribute was paid also to the Jaycees for their cooperation in the work of beautifying the town.

The report gave a detailed financial statement on how the $500 grant has been used, less a balance of $43.01 on hand. The largest items of expenditures were for trees, $105, Markham nurseries, $210, and Symonds bulldozing, $85.

Eight board meetings were held during the season and four inspections made. The following are members of the board: R. H. Corner, chairman, Dr. Boland, vice-chairman, Mrs. Driver, treasurer, G. Adair, secretary, George Baldwin, Mrs. Klees, Larry Maughan, G. Duckworth, Councillor D. J. Murray, Robert Gundy, Robert Hodgkinson and P. E. Perryment.

The report paid tribute to Mr. George Miller for his caretaking work.

NOMINATION NIGHT

mittee, of which he is the chairman. He pointed out that of the 80 calls to which the fire brigade had responded, over 40 of them had been in the country, in the townships of King and Whitchurch. Mr. Jones showed pride at his task of summarizing what had been done in the waterworks department and the new quarter-million gallon reservoir that was near completion. As usual, the address of Mr. Jones was well received.

Davis and King
Councillors Davis and King gave brief reviews, concerned with the work of committees on which they served, namely, the Health and Sanitation and By-laws committees. Mr. Davis dealt with relief as a part of social welfare.

Councillor King mentioned the large number of by-laws that had been handled during 1952. He referred to the wide publicity which the zoning by-law had received. He expressed his thanks for the experience he had gained on council, assisted by the older members and paid tribute to Dr. Rose.

Murray and Tucker
Councillor Murray, who spoke at some length, made reference to the numerous questions that had come before council. Stating that we needed planning, he added that he was opposed to the zoning by-law as now drawn up. As chairman of the sports and publicity committee, he was also a member of the arena and parks boards and also served on the recreation commission. He was also a member of the streets and fire and water committees. Mr. Murray reminded his hearers that a year ago he said that he would, if elected, carry out the wishes of the majority of the people. That pledge he had kept. He referred to the need for flood lights in the town park and paid tribute to Mrs. Charles Webster for her "public spirited" action in turning over her property at Macell's Ave. for use as a playground.

Councillor Tucker described the planning board as the most active body in Aurora. Of the zoning by-law as now drawn up, he said he knew how important it was to the town. If the town was to grow, the planning board prepared plans and advice for council for the future of the town.

Dealing with the zoning by-law in some detail, Mr. Tucker said it concerned certain types of use such as residential, commercial, industrial and agricultural and conservation areas. He believed it would be for the good of the town.

Public School Trustees
Dr. Henderson, chairman of the public school board, presented a lengthy review of the work of the board. He stated that at least 80 new pupils were coming in during the present year. He made an appeal to the Lions, the Rotary and other organizations to assist in the work of the school. Dr. Henderson spoke also for Mrs. Lee, who was unable to be present through illness.

Mr. Charles Peterson expressed a wish to stay on the board for another term.

Hydro Commission
Mr. George Baldwin said he had been in office on the hydro commission for the past ten years. He claimed that the commission had done an excellent job. Receiving an acclamation, he said he felt this was a great honor.

Mayoral Candidate
Mr. Alex Bell spoke as a candidate for the mayoralty. He favored annexation in the interest of the town. He stated that maybe small industries could locate in town. He said council had done a good job in widening Yonge street, a job he really wanted to see done.

Mr. Bell congratulated Councillor Tucker on giving a good explanation on planning. Many people, he said, didn't understand zoning, not that they wanted to stop progress.

unless they were paid for it. In all his years of office he had never had as much criticism as he had received during the past eight months.

Denunciation followed denunciation. He alleged that the Aurora News Page had criticized every organization except one or two, and didn't know why it talked so much about the arena. When he sat down Mr. Underhill rose again to say that

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stephenson attended a church service in Orillia on Sunday where they heard the Rev. Farid Audich, pastor of the largest Arab Evangelical church in the Near East. He was born in Bethlehem, ordained in Jerusalem and preached for seven years at Nazareth. He was a delegate to the World Missionary Conference held in Germany last summer and is one of the outstanding delegates who will appear before a large number of congregations during a co-operative religious program being held in November.

The 50-50 Club of the United church met in the church parlors on Monday night.

The Young People of the Toronto Centre Presbytery met in the church parlors on Friday evening. Young people were present from Newmarket, Queensville and Wesley. Miss Evelyn Lapp of Toronto was in charge of the games.

Dr. and Mrs. Boland and family spent the weekend with Mrs. Steele of Forest, Ont.

The Women's Institute will be held on Thursday evening, Nov. 27, in the United church parlors at 8 p.m. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Pett, convener of citizenship and education.

The Trinity Guild of the Anglican church are holding a bazaar and afternoon tea in Trinity hall on Saturday, Nov. 29.

Mrs. Mackay McLean of Petticoat, N.B., and Mr. Kenneth Switzer of Long Lac, Ont., are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Switzer.

The Area Informational Missionary rally was held in the United church on Wednesday evening. Guest speakers were: Rev. Bob Elliot, superintendent of Missions in Alberta and Saskatchewan, and Professor David, a native of India Indore College.

Mrs. MacInnes of Montreal has been a guest for the past two weeks of her sister, Mrs. Leslie Wilson of Spruce St.

There was a good crowd at the Square Dancing club on Monday night and everyone reported having a wonderful time.

At the Kiwanis Music Festival at Guelph, held on Thursday, Nov. 20, Dawna Case was gold medalist for girls under 14. Margaret Barrager won third place for girls under 18. Both are pupils of Mr. Illtyd Harris. At the same festival, under the conductorship of Mr. Harris, the Aurora junior church choir won two shields.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. M. Hulse, Susanne and Tommy were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Reis, Burlington, on Saturday. Mr. Hulse was guest speaker at the Municipal dinner and dance tendered the Burlington Canadian Legion Ontario juvenile softball champions.

In his confusion he had made the mistake of saying "Banner" instead of saying "Era". He said he was glad that Dr. Boulding had taken the Era (Aurora News Page) to task.

Another arena board member, Mr. W. H. Stoddart, arose to say that he had intended to say what he thought of the Era (Aurora News Page) but felt Mr. Underhill had said enough.

(In short, they gave the editor "the works". But in the opinion of one responsible citizen it was "a painful, pitiful exhibition." In the opinion of another, "Boulding and Underhill let the town down.")

Editor's Note: Concerning the talk Dr. Boulding had with us two years ago, after nominations in the former high school, he asked that it should be considered "off the record". We have faithfully honored his request. Now that he himself has broken the request, presumably to attract the attention of his hearers, and to add weight to his animadversions on us, we shall relate in next week's issue of the Aurora News Page what really did take place.

If one may judge from what he told his audience on Thursday night, Nov. 20, Dr. Boulding either has an imperfect or, alternatively, an expedient memory. Now that his own action has given us the freedom to do so, we shall record the conversation in closer detail, and with greater fidelity to fact, than Dr. Boulding told it.

King City And District

Court Of Revision

At King township's court of revision held Monday at the municipal office at Nobleton five appeals against assessment were dealt with, which were all comparatively small, the highest being $400.

An appeal from Catherine and James Reid, of Grove Ave., Toronto was sustained. Buildings and land are assessed for $300. They claimed their assessment was too high; that they have no road access to their cottage and are unable to get insurance on their building because it is unoccupied. Assessor Edward Reddick told court the land assessment could not be altered unless the assessment on the whole subdivision, located north of Temperanceville is changed.

KETTLEBY

Election for Five

Voters in eight polling subdivisions will cast their ballots to elect five trustees to the public school board of area No. 4, King township, on Monday, Dec. 1. Voting will take place from 9.30 a.m. till 6.30 on the same day as the municipal election for deputy-reeve and three councillors.

Seven men and one woman who were nominated on Nov. 21 at municipal nominations at Kettleby, are contesting. They are Frank Beatty, Carl Black, Earl Cook, J. Donald Cheyne, Albert Farrer, J. W. Fawcett, Mrs. D. Patterson and Wesley Walls. Three would hold office for two years and two trustees would have one year.

The new school comprises sections 8, 12, 11 and 9. Since the area was formed last year, a 12-man board, chaired by Carmen Tilson, S. S. 11, Kettleby, have selected the site, located just east of the new Barrie highway, near the fifth concession, fronted by the Aurora-Schomberg highway. Tenders have been let for a five-room consolidated school to take care of the children of the four school sections. Bus transportation will be established for scholars.

When Mrs. Dolina Patterson of S. S. 8 addressed the nomination meeting she said she thought a school board needs a woman's point of view. "What we need is enthusiasm, co-operation and common sense. Taxation is the problem and a common sense approach is vitally important. Get out and vote, so that the five elected trustees will have your support," she declared.

C.N.I.B. COMMITTEE MEETS AT TRINITY

The annual meeting of the Newmarket and District Advisory Committee to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind was held at Trinity United church on Monday evening, Nov. 17, Mrs. J. E. Morris, presiding.

The guest speaker, Miss Louise Cowan, supervisor of home teaching, spoke briefly on the work of the home teachers. Miss Cowan stressed that the home teachers endeavour not only to teach a newly-blind person new skills, but also to encourage him to use those that he already has.

After considering the Institute's work during the past year and laying plans for future activities, reports were given by Mrs. C. S. Gilbert, Welfare convener.

E. G. Brown, district field secretary and the treasurer Mr. Alex MacKay, sent in reports. From these reports it was noted that Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. G. W. Somerville had been active in visiting while the treasurer's report indicated that the annual campaign to raise funds in Newmarket and the surrounding area had met with favorable response.

Plans were also made for purchasing Christmas presents for all the registered blind throughout the area.

Elected to hold office for the ensuing year were: chairman, Mrs. J. E. Morris; vice-chairman, H. A. Jackson; secretary, Mrs. Elman W. Campbell; treasurer, Alex MacKay; Welfare convener, C. S. Gilbert.

Fournier was removed by the court, and the land assessment of $150 sustained. Mr. Fournier who owns two lots north of Temperanceville claimed his house trailer had been removed last May therefore no building should be assessed as vacant land.

C. A. Meadows, will be reassessed for $100 on south east lot 28, because J. F. Anderson claimed the agreement to purchase was returned unsigned therefore he has no interest in this property. S.E. part of lot 29 was also reassessed to Mr. Meadows because A. Colucci claimed the deed to purchase has been cancelled and payment for the property has been stopped. These properties are in Oakridge Park subdivision.

Mrs. Hazel Robertson claimed that lot 5, plan 165, being part of lot 18, Concession 6, assessed for $400, is located in school section 6 and should be assessed in this section in place of S.S. 5. She asked to have this lot transferred to the Jamieson school section because there is no road leading into the New Scotland school section. The court decided to refer the matter to both school boards for their consideration of the change, and to notify Mrs. Robertson of the decision.

Members of the court of revision were Reeve Elton Armstrong, deputy reeve T. A. McCutcheon, and councillors Wm. Hodgson, Ray Jennings and Russell Snider.

Lake Marie Anniversary
The 32nd Charter anniversary of Lake Marie and King Athletic association was held in the form of a turkey supper, on Nov. 21 at King City United church, when the softball club and coach John Dew and the King City hockey club, with manager Bruce Hall, were special guests of their sponsors, Lake Marie.

President George Brown was master of ceremonies. A. E. Kelley, was the oldest charter member present at the anniversary. Mr. George Bainbridge, the oldest war veteran of the community was a guest of honor, as were Mr. and Mrs. Luke Auckland. The gentlemen spoke briefly and the large anniversary cake decorated with 32 red candles was cut by vice president, W. E. Barker.

The Athletic association was founded 32 years ago in the log cabin on the estate of Sir Henry Pellat, known then as Lake

Marie. A government charter was received bearing the directors' names, James Patton, Kenneth Montizambert, A. W. Crawford, V. A. Hall and E. M. Legge. The principles of the organization are for promotion of athletics and other pastimes, to provide sports grounds and prizes, and to use money raised for improvements of village or vicinity. During the last war years, the Athletic association raised $7,000, half of which it gave to the Telegram British War Victims Fund, the other half to King W.I. for the purpose of sending boxes to overseas service men. The organization donated $500 to the village when the first hydro was installed; it purchased Memorial Park for use by the community and has put in some playground equipment. It gives the King City wrestling club free quarters for training.

On July 1, 1953, Lake Marie will revert to its original family field day. It will be recalled that July 1 was Lake Marie Day until the war years made a difference in organizing this event.

says John Waltz, St. Mary's, Ontario, who writes:

Three or four pounds of Super Greens Pellets per hundred birds have been fed each day to our flock all during the winter. Super Greens Pellets seem to have the extra something required to keep the birds in good health while laying heavily.

They have been laying since last October and at a steady 80%.

We used to wet mash our flock at noon but Super Greens Pellets are much handier and do a better job.

Township Present and Future

King township as a unit with its 88,000 acres of land and 7,000 people, composed of separate communities each with its own problems is a big job for a five-man council to handle.

That the taxes have only increased one mill in three years is good financing. No tax sales were instituted in 1952 and response in tax arrears payment is satisfactory. It reflects the prosperity and civic responsibility of citizens. The population is increasing 1,000 per year and more and more estates are being built, and King township is considered a good countryside in which to live. These and many more facts were brought out by Reeve Elton Armstrong and others of council at their nomination meeting, chaired by H.
E. Ross.

"I have never begrudged any time spent in directing the financing of the township as a whole," the reeve declared. The creditable financial status of the township, the growth in population, expansion of schools and the building in the newly formed school area, the benefits of conservation, the necessity of heavy machinery for year-round road maintenance, the problem of getting fair concessions from the department of highways in relation to the closing of certain crossroads to the Barrie highway, the township's favorable position in relation to county equalized assessment were mentioned by the reeve.

"While we do not want to exempt any portion of our payment as a municipality to the County of York, we are glad to know that through the work of the assessor and legal staff, we were able to reach a satisfactory levy by the county, for 1952 and 1953.

Closing of Roads Concerning concessions from the provincial department of highways in the closing of township crossroads to the Barrie highway, a decision will be reached on Dec. 15. At the hearing given property owners concerned with the proposal, Mr.
Armstrong said his hands are tied. He was blamed by a spokesman for the department for delaying an answer regarding certain improvements of the sixth and fifth concession roads,
which the department was projecting. He said he had filed his dissatisfaction with the township lawyer.

Regarding conservation, the reeve said King pays $136 a year for its share in the Holland River authority. He had no financial report from the Humber Valley authority but said that the township is receiving benefits from the scheme. Schomberg Lions are planning to dam
the creek, which through a local conservation authority would not cost the community more than one mill, after the government subsidies were paid.

The reeve spoke of the co-operation received by township school trustees. He commended the way in which trustee boards have managed where new rooms are being added as in the case of the Kettleby consolidated school building.

Deputy-Reeve McCutcheon said the best investment the township has made was the purchase of the $14,000 bulldozer.
Give the road supervisor good machinery and he will give good service to taxpayers. He said today, 75 percent of the road travel is done by heavy traffic.
He said the township population will reach 14,000 before long.

Councillor Jennings said township roads are better than they have been for years. More itches have been dug, more grades cut off and machinery well used. There is no demand for lower taxes; the demand comes for better roads and for the removal of snow as fast as possible. He believes the concession and sideroads should all be treated with oil calcium from "end to end". The status of the sixth and fifth concession roads
which have access to the new Barrie highway cloverleaf intersections will be improved. He said the Humber Valley authority pays a $50 grant to those establishing farm ponds approved by the engineer. They provide greater fire protection. He thinks a measured assessment system will be set up in the new year. This would cut the land assessment and give greater as-essment on buildings.

Councillor Snider asked for re-election on Dec. 1.
Councillor Hodgson believes a planning board, independent of the township council should be instituted in King township. He thinks the township weed sprayer should be available for use by ratepayers. Roadside spraying is not sufficient. The farmers' fields would benefit from independent use of the machine. Mr. Hodgson advocated improved school bus roads.
Some in use are too narrow for safety. He would like to see the roadway improved west of highway No. 27.

Another plank in his platform is improved health services in schools. He mentioned that Oak Ridges school board has employed a school nurse. When the new consolidated school is in operation, the number of pupils in five rooms would do well with the services of a special health scheme. He spoke of other schools that are bulging at the seams. As the township increases in population the school space will be at a premium, he said.

Mr. Kehoe said there is still room for improvement of roads.
Make roads safe for school children, and do more sanding in winter months, he said. He believes in "keeping a close eye on taxes", but he would give 24-hour snow plowing to every taxpayer.

Others in the new rank and file spoke well of the present council, Aitchison, Doan and Wellesley. Aitchison and Doan said they would be candidates.
Wellesley asked for support if he contested.

Donald Findlay told his hearers to retain the character of the township as much as possible.
As a corporation lawyer and having lived in both city and rural municipalities, he sees how his own village of King City is gradually changing from a purely rural place to a semi-rural community. He fails to see why the burden of the township's taxes should come on real estate. He believes a gasoline tax would give municipal revenue.

Mr. W. E. Barker, in council for six years some time ago, had no fault to find with the present council. He asked for support on his former record of fairness to all taxpayers.
Open House Dec. 2

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 2, at 8 o'clock, open house at King City school will be held for everyone in S. S. 2. Miss Eva Dennis, principal, Miss Doris Patton and Miss Ethel Thomas,
the teachers, will be hostesses.

It is hoped that Mr. H. G. Galpin, school inspector, will attend. Mr. Illyd Harris of Aurora, music supervisor, intends to bring some of his singers to provide entertainment. The new strip projector, presented by the board to the school, will be used to show still pictures and a movie. Nancy Patton and Jessie Kemp, grade 8 orators, will deliver orations which they gave at the King township oratorical contest this fall. Refreshments will be served by the girls of grade 8. Open house is an evening well worth attending.

Buried in King Cemetery

The funeral service of Robert Hadwen, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Lewis Hadwen, was held at the family residence at Teston, Vaughan township, Thursday,
Nov. 20, with interment in King cemetery. Rev. M. R. Jenkinson conducted the service. Pallbearers were young men of the Hydro Commission, associates of the deceased. Honorary pallbearers and flower-bearers were other close friends.

The young man's tragic death was a shock to his parents, his elder brother, Donald and the entire community. Bruce had been working with the Hydro since Nov. 13, when repair work

Acclaim Elton Armstrong Reeve,

To Elect Others In King Twp.

Reeve Elton Armstrong has been re-elected by acclamation to serve a fourth term in King township municipal council. He was acclaimed at municipal nominations held at Kettleby, Nov.
21, when no opposing nomination was made.

For the first time since Dec.
1949, electors of King township will select a deputy reeve and three councillors, on Monday, Dec. 1. With the retirement of deputy reeve, T. Arthur McCutcheon, a keen contest is anticipated when two candidates, William Hodgson and Ray Jennings, present councillors, are aspirants for the deputy reeveship. They are prepared to carry the contest "through to a finish". Mr.
Hodgson's name was proposed by William Weedon and seconded by Peter Muirhead. Mr. Jennings' nomination was moved by Howard Morning and seconded
by Arthur Weddell.

The six competing for three council seats are, Russell Snider, Nobleton, seeking re-election;
Wilfred Aitchison, farmer at north of the Malton road on the following Monday forenoon was the scene of his death. He had moved a roll of wire to the roadside and inadvertently turned to touch a live wire.

Doctors worked for over two hours in an effort to restore consciousness to the victim. The hydro crew erected a tent over the young man and every available means was used to revive him, with no avail. He passed away about five o'clock that afternoon. The only noticeable scar was a slight mark on one of his hands. It is believed 10-000 volts of electricity had passed through his body.

Hundreds of friends viewed the remains and the presence of many young men bore testimony to the esteem in which Bruce was held. He was born on the old Hadwen estate and had attended Hope public school and Richmond Hill high school. He had helped his father on their fifth concession farm but had been employed with hydro for the past two winter seasons.
Bruce was a member of Teston United church and a very active worker in the fellowship group.
He and his brother Don were found every Sunday morning taking up the collection for the congregation at Teston church.

King City And District

Edited by Friends

Grateful recognition of 34 years' faithful service as mail carrier on King rural route 3, was tendered Mr. Frank Gambrell, and his wife at a large gathering of friends held in King City Masonic hall, Wednesday evening, Nov. 19. Box holders and King postal employees honored the man who had not only given all his energy and thought to a job "well done"; they remembered the man whose milk of human kindness, generosity, ready smile and cheery word made his name a household word in the countless number of families he had served on his 30-mile route, 300 days a year.

It is little wonder that 175 box holders and 30 families found it a privilege to prepare a surprise for their 72-year-old war veteran mailman, and his helpmate, Mrs. Gambrell. It was easy for them to refresh their memories with her wonderful sense of humor and jolly manner that could take the edge off a serious situation or an unexpected predicament with a merry laugh. They knew Mrs. Gam-brill, a "good trooper", would accompany her husband on the route when the mail was heaviest or the roads were at their worst. They were married in 1941 and her help during the past 10 years was remembered.

Mr. E. S. Reddick was chairman of the evening which was spent playing euchre prior to the ceremonial presentations. Mr. Gambrell was presented with a Lazy Boy chair with matching foot stool. Mrs. Gambrell received a hand-painted electric tri-light floor lamp. There was also a purse of money with the gifts which will come in useful for the special holiday the couple are anticipating. The gifts were presented by Mr. Reddick, Mr. Leonard Hall and Mr. Chas. Williams. The address of appreciation was read by Ewart Jennings.

After the presentations and a sing-song, refreshments were served by the ladies.

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of ratepayers of S. S. 2, King, for the nomination and election of a trustee to King City school board, for a three-year term, has been set for Wednesday, Dec. 17, 8 p.m. at the school. It has been found that the statutory date, which falls on Wednesday between Christmas and New Years has brought few people to the meetings. In two or more instances a second meeting has had to be called in order to arouse interest. School business is every ratepayer's business and the appointment of a trustee is the responsibility of everyone in the section, whether he or she has or has not children attending school.

Dr. H. G. Barrie, present chairman of the board, automatically retires, concluding his three-year term of office. He states he does not intend to stand for re-election. He believes the office should be passed on to acquaint others with this important work of handling school affairs. Mr. James G. Keens will be chairman of the board for the coming year. Altogether, he has been on the board for five years. Mr. Laurance Scott, who was elected in December, 1951, will commence his second year.

Present Sports Crest

Young boys of Strange and Kinghorn junior softball team, winners in a district league, were presented with crests which will be worn on their uniforms, by King City Lions at the dinner meeting of the club, Nov. 18, held in the dining hall of the United church and catered by the W.A. Twelve players and their coaches, Donald Gillias and Harold Hollinshead, were recipients of the crests presented by Lion Jack Walkington. Mr. Graham Walter of Maple was the guest speaker. As a member of the Olympic team that went to Amsterdam for competition a few years ago, Mr. Walter spoke on sportsmanship and the purpose of setting a goal of achievement.

Everley Bazaar

This Friday afternoon, Nov. 28, Everley W.A. bazaar will open at 3 o'clock in the parlors of King United church when a variety of useful articles will be available for Christmas purposes. There will be home baking, miscellaneous table, and the touch and take counter as well as fish pond for children. Afternoon tea will be served. Mrs. Fred Curtis will officially open the event.

Two Seats Filled

Trustee Donald M. Findlay and Robert McLeod, King City baker, have been acclaimed trustees of the police village of King City for the coming year. A second civic nomination meeting will be called to name the third position on the board. Nominations were held in the Masonic hall on Friday night, Nov. 21, with a very small percentage of ratepayers present. Mr. Andrew McClure was returning officer. Mr. Findlay was nominated by C. G. Wells and seconded by M. A. Wilson. Mr. McLeod's nomination was proposed by Geo. Armitage and seconded by Stanley Hunter. Others nominated were trustees Crawford G. Wells, trustee William Carson, Irving L. Scott, Harry Cunningham, Dave Glass and George Brown.

Mr. Findlay, who had resigned from the trustee board early in November, consented to file his qualification for the position after trustees Wells and Carson declined to stand. When all but Mr. Findlay, Mr. Brown, Mr. Glass (who was not present), and Mr. McLeod had made their signatures of resignation, it remained for these four to decide upon their qualifications by 9 p.m. on November 22. George Brown and Dave Glass failed to qualify.

Mr. Findlay was nominated as a councillor of King township on the same afternoon of Nov. 21, at the municipal nominations held at Kettleby. With nominations to two positions, he made the choice in favor of the village trusteeship.

One hundred cement blocks were used to renew Keele Street sidewalks, according to Mr. Findlay who reviewed the year's work in the community. Name plates of streets and standards were installed.

Street lighting has been improved and paid for. Several new lights were installed and old ones were all rewired. The bill from the hydro commission was staggering. The order for the work was forwarded in 1950 and most of the work done in 1951. Prices had advanced and there was more work required than contemplated to give the village the improvement it required. Despite the fact that the trustee board, with Major Mackenzie, M.P.P., had set in conference with the Toronto hydro regional office to have the bill reduced, only a little over $70 was deducted.

Watermain extension on the west end of King St. was instituted. The bill was about $1,153, which was $260 short of the estimate. This bill has been paid. The policy of the board adopted was that waterworks development would only be made within the four boundaries of the village. There is a deficit of about $1,600 to be carried forward into 1953. This amount has accrued from the large hydro improvement bill, which was far in excess of what the trustees had anticipated. Secondly, it was not deemed wise to call for a debenture to carry the cost of the watermain expenditure. To do so would have cost taxpayers twice as much money in the end. The policy was to pay now and get advantage of it. It was paid for from the current account, said Mr. Findlay.

These expenditures in excess of what the budget provided for, make for a deficit but they are capital assets to the village. The watermain extension is bringing a revenue and the street lighting was one of the major concerns of villagers who now reap the benefit of a more adequate system, Mr. Findlay pointed out. The hydro bill was the largest expenditure of 1952, said trustee Wells. "I do not see any heavy expenditures for 1953," said Mr. Findlay.

He commented on the conduct of discussion of the trustee board. "When we ran into differences of opinion, we left the matter over until it was more thoroughly understood by each member before our final conclusions were reached. For this reason there has been unanimity and co-operation throughout the year."

"Our trustee board has done a good job." We have something to show for the money expended," said Mrs. Hunter.

Farewell Gift to Riddell's

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Riddell received a teapot and cups and saucers from their neighborhood friends at a presentation party held for them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Campbell, 5th line, on Saturday evening. Forty-five adults and nine children were present to wish them good luck as they leave their town-line home to settle on their farm at Yonge St. subway. Mrs. Whatley Finch read the address and Mrs. Lorne Scott presented the gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newton, their son Don and his wife are moving onto the Riddell farm, which Mr. Newton has purchased.

Miss Bessie Halbert and Miss Dorothy Modgett, Toronto, were weekend guests of Miss Dorothy Armstrong. They had accompanied Miss Armstrong on her European trip during the past summer.

WE NEED A CHANGE

The present mayor has for several years expressed a desire to retire from public service but seems reluctant to hand the reins of office to anyone else.

I feel that this state of affairs is not a healthy situation. Unless one is particularly interested in this office, I believe he cannot do justice to the administration of town affairs.

Routine administration is not sufficient: we must look ahead with a view to improving the community and to increasing the number of industries. Otherwise Newmarket will become a suburban community instead of a centre of industry.

I appreciate the wonderful support given to me by the people of Newmarket when I was elected to council for 1952.

If elected as mayor I will do everything in my power for the benefit of our town and people. It is difficult to contact each of you personally and I therefore take this opportunity of asking for your support on Monday next.
